

ECONOMICS AND POLITICS OF TRANSITION

Edited by

Christopher T. Saunders

Visiting Fellow, Science Policy Research Unit University of Sussex, UK

M

in association with
THE VIENNA INSTITUTE FOR COMPARATIVE ECONOMIC STUDIES

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Christopher Saunders Editor's introduction	1
--	---

PART I – CONCEPTS, THEORIES AND AIMS

Chapter 1: Norbert Kloten Transition of economic systems: basic aspects	23
Chapter 2: Ruben Yevstigneev Transition from command to market economies	47
Chapter 3: Kazimierz Laski Concepts of transition in socialist economies	63
Chapter 4: Helmut Leipold The neoliberal concept of economic order	73
Comments on Part I: Rikard Lang (on Kloten &amp; Yevstigneev)	85
Hans-Jürgen Wagener (on Laski)	90
Kazimierz Laski (on Leipold)	94

PART II – TRANSFORMATION POLICIES IN EASTERN EUROPE

Chapter 5: Eduard Hochreiter/Peter Backé Policies for stabilisation and adjustment in the transition period	97
Chapter 6: Philipp Rieger Monetary and financial policies in the transition period	111
Chapter 7: Jan Stankovsky Foreign economic relations in Eastern Europe's transition	125

Comments on Part II:	Gerhard Fink (on privatisation)	143
	Valentin Kudrov (on Hochreiter/Backé, Rieger & Stankovsky)	146
	Neven Mates (on Hochreiter and Rieger)	147
	Dominick Salvatore (on Stankovsky)	151

PART III – AGRICULTURE IN THE TRANSITION PROCESS

Chapter 8: Carlo Boffito
Problems in East European agriculture		157
Chapter 9: Ivan Benet
Agriculture in the Hungarian reform		167
Chapter 10: Karl-Eugen Wädekin
The restructuring of East European agriculture		175

PART IV – COUNTRY STUDIES OF TRANSITIONS – WEST

Chapter 11: Josef Molsberger
West Germany: the monetary reform of 1948 and the rebirth of the market economy		185
Chapter 12: Hannes Androsch
Austria: solutions in a unique political environment		203
Chapter 13: Bernard Cazes
France: two big transitions		213
Comment on Part IV:	Günther Chaloupek (on Molsberger, Androsch and Cazes)	218

PART V – COUNTRY STUDIES OF TRANSITIONS – EAST

Chapter 14: Karel Kouba
Czechoslovakia: strategies for systemic change	221
Chapter 15: Wolfgang Heinrichs
East Germany: transformation to a social market: opportunities and risks	231
Chapter 16: Jens Kammerath
East Germany: a special case or a precedent?	245
Chapter 17: Lajos Bokros
Hungary: issues for privatisation	253
Chapter 18: Márton Tardos
Hungary: transformation in progress	273
Chapter 19: Urszula Plowiec
Poland: the adjustment programme	295
Chapter 20: Bartłomiej Kaminski
Poland: underpinning the transition: the shadow of the round table agreements	307
Chapter 21: Roman Dolczewski
Poland: building a joint venture from a state enterprise	333
Chapter 22: Valentin Kudrov
Soviet Union: programmes of economic reform	345
Chapter 23: Dragomir Vojnić
Yugoslavia: experience of systemic change	349

Comments on Part V:	Neven Mates (on Heinrichs)	368
	Karl-Ernst Schenk (on Bokros and Dolczewski)	369
	Jiří Kosta (on Kaminski)	371
	Aleksander Lukaszewicz (on Eastern Europe generally)	374
	Aleksandar M. Vacić (on East European experience)	377

PART VI – CONCLUDING REFLECTIONS

Chapter 24: Hans-Jürgen Wagener
Economics and politics of transition		389
Chapter 25: Aleksandar M. Vacić
Specific features of transition from plan to market		399
LIST OF PARTICIPANTS		409
INDEX		413