

TOWARD

An Intellectual Biography of

HANS KOHN

Adi Gordon

Brandeis University Press · Waltham, Massachusetts

NATIONALISM'S END

Contents

Acknowledgments · ix

Introduction · 1

Part One Authenticity and Political Ruin, 1908–1920 · 11

ONE A Turning Inward

Kohn's Youth in Multinational Late Habsburg Prague · 13

TWO “The Decisive Years”

The Great War and the Waning of the Imperial World Order · 55

Part Two Separating Nation and State, 1919–1934 · 91

THREE To Tame Empire, Nation, and Man

Political Agenda in the 1920s · 93

FOUR Nation and State in Kohn's Scholarship and Jewish Thought · 114

FIVE “A Disillusioned Love”

Break with Zionism · 142

Part Three An Affirming Flame, 1933–1971 · 159

SIX “The Totalitarian Crisis” and “the Last Best Hope”

Catastrophic Americanization and Breakthrough · 161

SEVEN Nationalism in the American Century · 207

EIGHT Coda

The Endurance of Kohn's Jewish Question · 237

Afterword · 253

Notes · 257

Archives · 317

Index · 319