SOCIAL POLICY AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT IN ZAMBIA

Ndangwa Noyoo

© Ndangwa Noyoo 2008

ISBN 978-9982-3-050-2

Published by UNZA Press
University of Zambia
P.O. Box 32379
Lusaka
Zambia

Printed by: Musumali Press
Private Bag 33320
Lusaka
Zambia

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	(ix)
Acronyms	(xi)
Figures and Boxes	(xiv)
List of Tables	(xv)
Dedication	(xvi)
Preamble	1
Chapter one: Conceptual grounding and theoretical perspectives	15
Introduction	15
Social policy conceptualised	18
The scope and nature of social policy	21
The role of ideology in social policy	22
Ideology and social policy in Zambia	23
Ideology and the contemporary Zambian scenario	24
What is human development?	26
Human development in Zambia	28
Defining social welfare	29
The Residual Model	31
The Institutional Model	31
The New World Order Model	32
The Developmental Social Welfare Model	32
Conclusion	33
Chapater two: Social change and development in Zambia	35
Introduction	35
The meaning of social change	35
Evolutionary change or evolutionism	38
Radical or revolutionary change	38
Planned change or development	38
Organisational change	38
The social systems perspective	39
Pre-colonial Zambia	41
Colonial rule	42
British rule	42
The making of a post-colonial society	44
The First Republic	45
The Second Republic	48
The Third Republic	51
Social change and notions of development	55
Selected theories of development	58
Modernisation theory	58

Dependency Theory 59
Structuralist theories and industrial development 60
Neo-liberalism 60
The basic needs approach 61
Sustainable development 61
Social development 62
Conclusion 63

Chapter three: The development and evolution of social policy in Zambia 65

Introduction 65
Colonial society and social policy 65
Social policy in post-colonial Zambia 68
Social policy in the 1980s and 1990s 70
Government's responses to the IMF and World Bank-led economic reforms 70
Social policy trends in the new millennium 72
The Department of Social Welfare 75
Social Security/Protection 78
The National Pension Scheme 81
Disaster Management 87
Conclusion 88

Chapter four: Social policy and human development in a Least Developed Country (LDC): Zambia 91

Introduction 91
Characteristics of Least Developed Countries (LDCs) 91
International trade and LDCs 93
Globalisation and LDCs 96
The setting and prevailing conditions 98
Corruption 102
Infrastructure development 103
Agriculture 104
Tourism 108
Sport and recreation 109
Brain drain 110
Zambia in Southern Africa 113
Cultural affiliation 113
Geo-political ties 114
The Southern African Liberation Struggle 115
Social policy and human development in the region 117
Conclusion 119

Chapter five: Zambia's human development imperatives 121

Introduction 121
Social services 121
Education 122
Housing 125
Health 127
Mental health 130
Water and sanitation 131
Rural development 132
What is rural development? 134
Way forward? 134
Civil liberties and equal opportunities 135
Human rights 135
Social and economic justice 135
Gender parity 136
Vulnerabilities and populations at risk 138
People with disabilities 138
The visually impaired 140
The aged 140
The youth 141
Children 144
Conclusion 147

Chapter six:
Monitoring and evaluation: outcomes, impacts and policy analysis for human development 149

Introduction 149
The concept of Monitoring and Evaluation (M & E) 150
Monitoring defined 150
Evaluation conceptualised 150
Participatory Monitoring and Evaluation (PM & E) 155
The domain of public policy 155
The need for policy analysis 156
Stages in the policy analysis cycle 159
Implementing policy 159
Delivery analysis 161
Zambia's public policy arena 163
Profile of monitoring and evaluation in Zambia 167
Conclusion 169

Chapter seven: The helping professions and human development in Zambia 171

Introduction 171
The helping professions 171

Social work's rationale 172
Purpose and objectives of social work 173
Values and ethics of social work 174
Knowledge base of social work 175
The ecosystem perspective: systems theory 175
The methods of social work 176
Casework 176
Group work 177
Community work 177
Community development 178
The historical roots of community development 179
Social work research 180
Social policy 181
Social work administration 182
Historical development of social work 182
Towards relief and reform 183
Relevance of social work in Least Developed Countries (LDCs) and Southern Africa 184
Social work curricula and education 187
Africanising social work practice and education 188
Conclusion 189

Chapter eight: Concluding notes on social policy and human development in Zambia 191

Introduction 191
The locus of Zambia's socio-economic challenges 193
The policy-institutions nexus 200
Understanding institutions 200
Springboards for human well-being in Zambia 201
The pursuit of a developmental state in Zambia 202
Debt sustainability 202
Nation-building and a collective national consciousness against all forms of mediocrity 203
Research and Development (R & D) 204
Education 205
Political stability, peace and security 206
The friendly nature and tolerance of Zambians 206
The resilience of Zambians 207
Lessons from others or 'catch-up' interventions 207
Smart partnerships 208
Regional and continental initiatives 208
Conclusion 209

Epilogue 210

Bibliography 223

Index 237