

CONTINENTAL CRISIS

The Lagos Plan of Action and Africa's Future

Edited by

David Fashole Luke

Timothy M. Shaw

General Editors of the Dalhousie African Studies Series

John E. Flint and Timothy M. Shaw

UNIVERSITY PRESS OF AMERICA

LANHAM • NEW YORK • LONDON

Centre for African Studies

Dalhousie University

Table of Contents

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.....	v
LIST OF TABLES AND DIAGRAMS.....	vii
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS.....	ix
FOREWORD.....	xi
INTRODUCTION.....	1
PART 1 - SECTORS	11
1 Agricultural Development and Self-Reliance.....	13
2 Poverty and Health: towards self- reliance in health care services.....	33
3 Communications and Development: implications for self-reliance in Africa.....	43
4 Towards Self-Reliance and Development in Africa: the role of management training.....	59
PART 2 - STRATEGIES	71
5 Towards a Political Economy of the Lagos Plan: innovation, interest and ideology.....	73
6 Collective Amnesia or Perpetual Debate? The African security agenda.....	103
7 African Women and Development: gender in the Lagos Plan of Action.....	131
APPENDICES
I Selections from The Lagos Plan of Action.....	155
II Selections from ECA and Africa's Development....	165
III Selections from Sub-Saharan Africa: progress report.....	205
SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY.....	225
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS.....	229

List of Tables and Diagrams

2.1	Demographic Data Comparing Lesser Developed Countries (L.D.C.) and Canada.....	34
2.2	Root Causes of Ill Health.....	34
2.3	Levels of Health Care.....	35
2.4	Some Factors leading to Continuance of Poor Health.....	36
2.5	How Does Oppression Affect Health?.....	38
2.6	What can be done about Correcting Poverty-Health Cycle.....	39
2.7	Lagos Plan of Action - Specific Practical Needs in Health.....	40
A.1	Sub-Saharan Africa: Commodities, Price Trends and Projections, 1960-90.....	216
Diagram 2.1	The Poverty Cycle: The Seeds of Revolution.....	38