

RALPH LERNER

MAIMONIDES'
EMPIRE OF LIGHT

Popular Enlightenment
in an Age of Belief

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

Chicago & London

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xv
PART ONE: The Politics of Public Teaching
1 Philosophy in the Public Square	3
2 Winged Words to Yemen Maimonides' Epistle to Yemen	14
3 Curricular Reform Maimonides' Mishneh Torah: Book of Knowledge	28
4 Hard Lessons for Slow Learners Maimonides' Treatise on Resurrection	42
5 Back to Basics Maimonides' Letter on Astrology	56
6 Teaching by Example Maimonides' Guide of the Perplexed	65
7 Persuasive Speech Falaquera's Epistle of the Debate	77
8 Postscript: Survival Training Albo's Book of Roots	89
PART TWO: Addresses to the People
Maimonides, Epistle to Yemen (1172) Translated by Joel L. Kraemer	99
Maimonides, Mishneh Torah , Introduction and "Book of Knowledge" (1177) Translated by Ralph Lerner	133
Maimonides, Treatise on Resurrection (1191) Translated by Hillel G. Fradkin	154

Maimonides, Letter on Astrology (1194) Translated by Ralph Lerner	178
Falaquera, Epistle of the Debate (before 1263) Translated by Steven Harvey	188
Notes	209
Bibliography	215
Indexes
Biblical Passages Appearing in the Texts	219
Rabbinic Passages Appearing in the Texts	221