

Apartheid Past,
Renaissance Future
South Africa's Foreign Policy: 1994–2004

Edited by
Elizabeth Sidiropoulos

This publication is funded by the Konrad Adenauer Foundation.

The South African Institute of International Affairs
Johannesburg

2004

Table of Contents

Foreword	v
Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela
Introduction and Acknowledgements	xi
Section One: New Horizons in a Changing World
Back to the Future? A Review of a Decade of International Relations Thinking	3
Greg Mills
Section Two: Principles, Policies and Practice
South Africa's Foreign Policy: Vision And Reality	35
Jack Spence
South Africa's Foreign Policy and a Realistic Vision of an African Century	49
Adam Habib &amp; Nthakeng Selinyane
Between Democratic Governance and Sovereignty: The Challenge of South Africa's Africa Policy	61
Elizabeth Sidiropoulos &amp; Tim Hughes
Multilateral Diplomacy: South Africa's Achievements	85
Tom Wheeler
South Africa's Trade Policy Paradigm — Evolution or Involution?	105
Rashad Cassim &amp; Harry Zarenda
Section Three: Some Key Actors
Who Made and Makes Foreign Policy?	119
Garth le Pere &amp; Anthoni van Nieuwkerk
The Defence Force and Peacekeeping: Linking Policy and Capacity	135
Theo Neethling
From Pariah to Pioneer: The Foreign Policy of the South African Police Service	149
Gail Wannenburg
Foreign Policy and Business in South Africa Post-1994	169
Kuseni Dlamini

South African Civil Society and the Making of South African Foreign Policy Kumi Naidoo	183
Section Four: South Africa and the World: A Stock-Take
An Overview of Bilateral and Regional Relations Nandile Ngubentombi	201
South Africa and Africa: Mixed Messages? Sanusha Naidu	205
South Africa and the European Union Talitha Bertelsmann-Scott &amp; Eltie Links	221
South Africa and Central and Eastern Europe Sara Pienaar	233
South Africa and North America Martha Bridgman	245
South Africa and Latin America Lyal White	263
South Africa and the Middle East: A Test of Sure-Footed Maturity and Do-Able Morality? Iqbal Jhazbhay	281
South Africa and Asia and Australasia PJ Botha	297
Afterword FW De Klerk	311
Appendices
A Chronology of Key Events Rachel Bambo &amp; Nandile Ngubentombi	317
Binational and Joint Commissions between South Africa and Africa Sanusha Naidu	327
South Africa's Evolving Trade Relations Peter Farlam, Nuria Giralt &amp; Nandile Ngubentombi	331
Select Glossary	339