

Racial Attitudes in America

Trends and Interpretations

Howard Schuman
Charlotte Steeh
Lawrence Bobo

Harvard University Press
Cambridge, Massachusetts and London, England 1985

Contents

1. Perspectives and Historical Background 1

Progressive Trend 4

Underlying Racism 5

A Third Alternative: Progress and Resistance 6

Historical Background 8

2. Problems in Studying Changes in Attitudes 43

Attitudes and Behavior 43

The Survey Questions 45

The Survey Samples 55

Interpreting Trend Data 58

3. Trends in White Racial Attitudes 71

Principles 73

Implementation 86

Social Distance 104

Miscellaneous Questions 117

The Relation of Age to Racial Attitudes 127

Conclusions about White Racial Attitudes 135

4. Trends in Black Racial Attitudes	139
Mirror Images	141
Principle, Implementation, and Other Questions	143
Interpretations	152
5. Theoretical Interpretations of White Trends	163
The Scientific American Reports	165
Superficial Tolerance	171
Symbolic Racism	176
Discounting Positive Responses Entirely	180
Equalitarianism versus Individualism	182
Objections to Government Intrusion	183
Conclusions	188
6. Conclusions	193
Interpreting the Trends	201
Epilogue: History and Social Psychology	207
Appendix A: Locating and Selecting Trend Questions	215
Appendix B: Statistical Testing Procedures	217
Notes	228
References	242
Index of Survey Questions	252
Index	255