

German Colonialism and National Identity

Edited by Michael Perraudin and Jürgen Zimmerer

with Katy Heady

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
New York London

Contents

List of Figures ix

Introduction: German Colonialism and National Identity 1
MICHAEL PERRAUDIN AND JÜRGEN ZIMMERER

PART I

Colonialism From Before the Empire

- 1 Imperialism, Race, and Genocide at the Paulskirche: Origins, Meanings, Trajectories 9
BRIAN VICK
- 2 Time, Identity, and Colonialism in German Travel Writing on Africa, 1848–1914 21
TRACEY REIMANN-DAWE
- 3 Gray Zones: On the Inclusion of “Poland” in the Study of German Colonialism 33
KRISTIN KOPP

PART II

Colonialism and Popular Utterance in the Imperial Phase

- 4 The War That Scarcely Was: The Berliner Morgenpost and the Boxer Uprising 45
YIXU LÜ
- 5 Boy’s and Girl’s Own Empires: Gender and the Uses of the Colonial World in Kaiserreich Youth Magazines 57
JEFFREY BOWERSOX

vi Contents

- 6 Picturing Genocide in German Consumer Culture, 1904–10 69
DAVID CIARLO
- 7 The Visual Representation of Blackness During German
Imperialism Around 1900 90
VOLKER LANGBEHN
- 8 Colonialism and the Simplification of Language: Germany's
Kolonial-Deutsch Experiment 101
KENNETH J. OROSZ

PART III

Colonialism and the End of Empire

- 9 Fraternity, Frenzy, and Genocide in German War Literature, 1906–36 115
JÖRG LEHMANN
- 10 Colonial Heroes: German Colonial Identities in Wartime,
1914–18 126
MICHAEL PESEK
- 11 Crossing Boundaries: German Women in Africa, 1919–33 140
BRITTA SCHILLING
- 12 Abuses of German Colonial History: The Character of Carl Peters as Weapon for völkisch and National Socialist
Discourses: Anglophobia, Anti-Semitism and Aryanism 160
CONSTANT KPAO SARÈ
- 13 “Loyal Askari” and “Black Rapist”—Two Images in the German Discourse on National Identity and Their Impact on the Lives of Black People in Germany, 1918–45 173
SUSANN LEWERENZ

PART IV

German Colonialism in the Era of Decolonization

- 14 (Post-) Colonial Amnesia? German Debates on Colonialism and Decolonization in the Post-War Era 187
MONIKA ALBRECHT

|    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 15 | Denkmalsturz: The German Student Movement and German Colonialism  | 197 |
|    | INGO CORNILS   |     |
| 16 | Vergangenheitsbewältigung à la française: Post-Colonial Memories of the Herero Genocide and 17 October 1961 | 213 |
|    | KATHRYN JONES  |     |
| 17 | The Persistence of Fantasies: Colonialism as Melodrama on German Television  | 224 |
|    | WOLFGANG STRUCK  |     |

PART V

Local Histories, Memories, Legacies

|    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 18 | Communal Memory Events and the Heritage of the Victims: The Persistence of the Theme of Genocide in Namibia                                     | 235 |
|    | REINHART KÖSSLER  |     |
| 19 | The Genocide in “German South-West Africa” and the Politics of Commemoration—How (Not) to Come to Terms with the Past                           | 251 |
|    | HENNING MELBER  |     |
| 20 | The Struggle for Genocidal Exclusivity: The Perception of the Murder of the Namibian Herero (1904–8) in the Age of a New International Morality | 265 |
|    | DOMINIK J. SCHALLER   |     |
| 21 | Narratives of a “Model Colony”: German Togoland in Written and Oral Histories   | 278 |
|    | DENNIS LAUMANN  |     |
| 22 | Suspended Between Worlds? The Discipline of Germanistik in Sub-Saharan Africa  | 292 |
|    | ARND WITTE  |     |

|  |                     |     |
|--|---------------------|-----|
|  | Contributors | 305 |
|  | Bibliography | 313 |
|  | Index        | 333 |