

THE ETHICS OF LATIN AMERICAN LITERARY CRITICISM

READING OTHERWISE

Edited by Erin Graff Zivin

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

List of Figures	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Reading Otherwise Erin Graff Zivin	1
Part I ETHICS, POLITICS, REPRESENTATION
1. The Ethical Superstition Bruno Bosteels	11
2. Ethics, Perhaps Gabriela Basterra	25
Part II ETHICS AND CULTURAL STUDIES
3. Ethics and Citizenship in the Blogosphere: Academics Meet New Technologies of Online Publication Idelber Avelar	45
4. Modernist Ethics: Really Engaging Popular Culture in Mexico and Brazil Esther Gabara	63
Part III THE LIMITS OF LITERATURE
5. A Few Notes on Constructed Worlds: The Contradictory Legacy of Past Decades Sergio Chejfec	105
6. Saying the Unsayable: Saer, or for an Ethics of Writing Gabriel Riera	115

7. Infrapolitics and the Thriller: A Prolegomenon to Every Possible Form of Antimoralist Literary Criticism.
On Héctor Aguilar Camín's La guerra de Galio
and Morir en el golfo 147
Alberto Moreiras

Part IV THE EXPERIENCE OF READING

8. Ethical Asymmetries: Learning to Love a Loss 183
Doris Sommer
9. Reading for the People and Getting There First 201
Francine Masiello
- List of Contributors* 217
- Index* 221