

THE ECONOMICS AND REGULATION OF UNITED STATES NEWSPAPERS

Stephen Lacy

and

Todd F. Simon

Michigan State University
East Lansing, MI

ABLEX PUBLISHING CORPORATION
NORWOOD, NEW JERSEY

Table of Contents

Preface ix

Acknowledgments xi

1	OVERVIEW OF THE NEWSPAPER INDUSTRY	1
	What is Economics?	2
	What is Regulation?	3
	What is a Newspaper?	4
	The Process of Running a Newspaper	7
	The Nature of the U.S. Newspaper Industry	9
	Of Newspapers and Shoes	16
	Summary	19
2	NEWSPAPER DEMAND	23
	Demand in the Information Market	23
	Demand in the Advertising Market	40
	Demand in the Intellectual Market	48
	Summary	50
3	NEWSPAPER SUPPLY	55
	Economic Theory	55
	Newspaper Supply and Costs	62
	Newspaper Supply and Demand	76
	Summary	87
4	COMPETITION IN THE NEWSPAPER INDUSTRY	91
	Newspaper Market Structure	91
	Direct Competition	94
	Intercity Competition	112
	Intermedia Competition	119
	Summary	123

viii TABLE OF CONTENTS

5	NEWSPAPER OWNERSHIP	131
	Trends in Newspaper Ownership	132
	Ownership Goals	136
	The Impact of Ownership on Newspaper Markets	141
	Summary	156
6	NEWSPAPERS AND TECHNOLOGY	163
	Technology and the Newspaper Industry	163
	Technology's Impact on Newspaper Markets	166
	The Future of Newspaper Technology	181
	Summary	183
7	ANTITRUST AND MARKET REGULATION OF NEWSPAPERS	187
	Background of Federal Antitrust Law	188
	Newspapers, Antitrust, and the First Amendment	190
	Overview of Newspaper Antitrust Cases	193
	Antitrust Claims Against Newspapers	199
	The Newspaper Preservation Act	207
8	NEWSPAPER ECONOMICS AND ANTITRUST	215
	The Economics of Antitrust Laws	215
	Impact of Newspaper Monopoly Power	220
	Summary	233
9	BUSINESS REGULATION OF NEWSPAPERS	237
	Tax Laws and Newspapers	238
	Labor Laws and the Press	246
	Newspapers and the Postal Laws	253
	Newspaper Distribution, Circulation, and Recirculation	256
	Summary	260
10	CONCLUSIONS	265
	The Impact of Market and Regulatory Constraints	265
	Policy Issues in the Newspaper Industry	274
	Summary	283
	Author Index	287
	Subject Index	291