

THE MIDDLE EAST AND PALESTINE:
GLOBAL POLITICS AND REGIONAL CONFLICT

Edited by Dietrich Jung

The logo for Palgrave Macmillan, featuring the word "palgrave" in a bold, lowercase sans-serif font with a small graphic of three dots above the 'a', and "macmillan" in a smaller, lowercase sans-serif font below it.

palgrave
macmillan

C O N T E N T S

Notes on Contributors	v
Preface	ix
Introduction	1
1 Global Conditions and Global Constraints: The International Paternity of the Palestine Conflict Dietrich Jung	3
Part 1
Global Discourses and Regional Politics	37
2 “Culture Blind and Culture Blinded”: Images of Middle Eastern Conflicts in International Relations Morten Valbjørn	39
3 Reinterpreting History: Perceptions of Nazism in Egyptian Media Götz Nordbruch	79
4 Internationalization of Anti-Islamist Discourse and Creation of a Regional Antiterrorism Mechanism: The Initiative of Mubarak’s Egypt Jeong-Min Seo	97
Part 2
Global Schemes and Local Realities: Transnational Islam and the Palestinian Refugee Problem	123
5 Official Islam, Transnational Islamic Networks, and Regional Politics: The Case of Syria Annabelle Böttcher	125

6	Religious Mobilizations in Palestinian Refugee Camps in Lebanon: The Case of Ain al-Helweh Bernard Rougier	151
7	Resolving the Palestinian Refugee Problem: Edward A. Norman's Unintended Contribution to Relevant Lessons in Perspectives, Values, and Consequences Dan Tschirgi	183
	Epilogue	221
8	September 11 and the Arab Reaction in Al-Hayat Walid Kazziha	223
	Index	239