

*A*FRICAN WOMEN AND GLOBALIZATION

Edited by
Jepkorir Rose Chepyator-Thomson

Africa World Press, Inc.

P.O. Box 1892
Trenton, NJ 08607

P.O. Box 48
Asmara, ERITREA

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword, Filomina Chioma Steady	ix
Introduction, Jepkorir Rose Chepyator-Thomson	1
PART I: THE AFRICAN WOMAN IN GLOBAL CONTEXTS: THEORETICAL AND CONCEPTUAL PERSPECTIVES
1. Globalization and Change in Africa: Patterns and Implications, Jepkorir Rose Chepyator-Thomson	9
2. Race and Gender in the Neoliberal Paradigm of Globalization: An International Perspective on Africa and the African Diaspora, Filomina Chioma Steady	19
3. Gender and Emerging Challenges in Educational Policy and the Public Sector, N'Dri Therese Assie-Lumumba	43
4. Who Is Afraid of Agency? Theorizing African Women out of the Victim Syndrome, Omofolabo Ajayi-Soyinka	67
5. From Contestation to Innovation: African Women Writers and Globalization, Opportune Zongo	95
PART II: AFRICAN REALITIES AND WOMEN'S VOICES: GLOBAL - LOCAL PERSPECTIVES
6. African Women Scientists: Education, Science Knowledge and Indigenous Medicine, Caroline Lang'at-Thoruwa	121
7. Girls' Education in Kenya: Problems and Prospects in Global Context, Macrina Lelei	153
8. Women in Agriculture in Kenya and Impact of Technology, Beatrice Kilel	183
9. African Women Musicians and Music Educators: Catalysts and Culture Brokers, Jean Ngoya Kidula	195

10. The Impact of Development on Women's Health and the Environment, mutindi mumbua kiluva-ndunda	215
11. Conserving Biodiversity: Opportunities and Challenges for Women in Resource Management in East Africa, Christine Dranzoa	225
12. African Women Run for Change: Challenges and Achievements in Sports, Jepkorir Rose Chepyator-Thomson	239
13. A Woman's Place Is in Her Business: The Informal Sector as a Survival Strategy for Women in Nigeria, Adenike Yesufu	259
Notes on the Editor and Contributors	283
Index	287