

Europe after Maastricht
American and European Perspectives

Edited by

Paul Michael Lützeler

Berghahn Books
Providence • Oxford

Contents

	Preface	vii
	Introduction Paul Michael Lützel	1
1	The U.S. and the EC: Cooperation and Competition Theo Sommer	11
2	The U.S./EC Relationship: Friends and Competitors Murray Weidenbaum	27
3	The European Community and the Challenge of the 1990s: Change and Competitiveness Caroline Jackson	41
4	Business Restructuring in Response to the Single Market James T. Little	53
5	From "Nation-State" to "Member State": The Evolution of the European Community Alberta Sbragia	69
6	European Integration and Social History since 1950 Hartmut Kaelble	89
7	Monetary Union in Europe: End of a Dream or Beginning of a Nightmare? Peter G. Rogge	113
8	European Economic and Monetary Union: Internal and External Dimensions Elke Thiel	125
9	Subsidiarity and the European Community George A. Bermann	139
10	The Role of the European Court of Justice on the Way to European Union Leila Sadat Wexler	159

11	Multilateralism and Re-Nationalization: European Security in Transition	Dieter Dettke	177
12	Europe Agreements: Economic Opportunities and Threats for Poland	Andrzej Stępniaak	195
13	Economic Cooperation between Russia and the EC Countries: Obstacles and Prospects	Yuri V. Fedotov	213
14	Environmental Policy in Europe: The Greening of Europe?	Michael Strübel	235
15	The Other "Democratic Deficit": Women in the European Community before and after Maastricht	Joyce M. Mushaben	251
16	European Cultural Policy after Maastricht	Robert Picht	277
17	The Context of Tradition and Cultural Identity: (Regionalism and Contemporary European Architecture)	Udo Kultermann	285
18	Writers on European Identity	Paul Michael Lützeler	295
	Notes on Contributors		307