

ABORIGINAL AFFAIRS

A SHORT HISTORY

MAX GRIFFITHS

Kangaroo Press

Contents

Introduction 7

- 1 The World's Most Distant Relatives 11
- 2 A Land Beyond Control 20
- 3 Guns or Gospels 31
- 4 A Nation is Born and a People is Dying 43
- 5 The Depths of the Depression 56
- 6 Hasluck: Prophet of Hope 67
- 7 'Such a Small Problem' 78
- 8 Of Mines and Men 88
- 9 Recognition by Referendum 99
- 10 Black Power in White Australia 113
- 11 The Promised Land 125
- 12 Law and Lore 137
- 13 'Born Again' Missionaries 147
- 14 Queensland: The Whitlam Way 158
- 15 Land Rights and Human Rights 166
- 16 Queensland: The Fraser Diplomacy 177
- 17 High Noon at Noonkanbah 186
- 18 Games Politicians Play 197
- 19 The Burgeoning of Black Bureaucracy 205
- 20 Foundations for the Future 216
- 21 Money to Burn 225
- 22 Terra Nullius no More 236
- 23 Entitlement and Extinguishment 249
- 24 Footing the Bill 262
- 25 Linking Land with Living on it 274
- 26 Culture and Credibility 286
- 27 'Too Many Voices' 302

Epilogue 314

Bibliography 319

Index 321