

Nahum Goldman

Statesman Without a State

Edited by Mark A. Raider

SUNY
P R E S S

and

TEL AVIV UNIVERSITY

THE CHAIM ROSENBERG SCHOOL OF JEWISH STUDIES
THE CHAIM WEIZMANN INSTITUTE FOR THE
STUDY OF ZIONISM AND ISRAEL

Contents

Preface	vii
Mark A. Raider

Part I. Statesman

1. Nahum Goldman: Jewish and Zionist Statesman—An Overview	3
Jehuda Reinharz and Evyatar Friesel

Part II. Thinker

2. Nahum Goldman as Zionist Thinker
Gideon Shimoni	63
3. Negation of the Galut and the Centrality of Israel: Nahum Goldman and David Ben-Gurion	75
Yosef Gorny

Part III. Maverick

4. The German Years: Early Chapters in the Biography of a Jewish Statesman	95
Michael Brenner
5. Nahum Goldman and the First Two Decades of the World Jewish Congress	107
Zohar Segev
6. Nahum Goldman and Chaim Weizmann: An Ambivalent “Relationship”	125
Jehuda Reinharz

7. Idealism, Vision, and Pragmatism: Stephen S. Wise, Nahum Goldmann, and Abba Hillel Silver in the United States Mark A. Raider	139
8. Toward the Partition of Palestine: The Goldmann Mission in Washington, August 1946 Evyatar Friesel	169
Part IV. Leader
9. Nahum Goldmann and Germany after World War II Shlomo Shafir	207
10. "Reparations Made Me": Nahum Goldmann, German Reparations, and the Jewish World Ronald W. Zweig	233
11. Nahum Goldmann and the Establishment of the Diaspora Museum Dina Porat	255
12. Leadership of Accommodation or Protest?: Nahum Goldmann and the Struggle for Soviet Jewry Suzanne D. Rutland	273
13. Goldmann's Initiative to Meet with Nasser in 1970 Meir Chazan	297
List of Contributors	325
Index	329