

Roger Schroeder

Initiation and Religion

A Case Study from the Wosera of Papua New Guinea

1992

University Press Fribourg Switzerland

Table of Contents

Table of Contents	5
List of Maps	9
List of Figures	9
Acknowledgements	11
Introduction	13

Chapter One: Overall Religious and Ritual Context

I. Traditional Melanesian Religions: An Overview	19
A. Preliminary Clarifications	19
B. Definition of Religion	23
C. General Characteristics	32
II. Traditional Melanesian Initiations: An Overview	46
A. General Background	46
B. Initiations in Melanesia	49
Conclusion	53

Chapter Two: Wosera Tradition: Unity and Division

I. General Setting	57
A. Cultural Context	57
B. Historical Context	70
II. Structures of Unity: Proper Relationships	81
A. Wider Inter-village Relationships	81
B. Village Bonds of Unity	85
III. Divisions Between People: Broken Relationships	100
A. Inter-village Hostilities	100
B. Intra-village Divisions	104
C. Divisive Powers of Villagers	107
D. Meta-village Hostility	112
Conclusion	114

Chapter Three: Wosera Tradition: Blessing and Initiation

I.	Meta-village Relationships	117
	A. Wale Spirits	118
	B. Ancestors	127
	C. Nggwal	132
II.	Village Institutions of Blessing	137
	A. Tambaran Cult and Male Initiation	137
	1. Preliminary Clarifications	138
	2. Cult Organization	138
	3. Blood-letting and Fertility	143
	4. General Pattern of Initiation	144
	5. Description of the Initiation Stages	147
	6. 'Karim Kangal' Celebration	156
	7. Art, Myth, and Women	158
	8. Final Comment	161
	B. Yam Cult	161
	C. Life Cycle Rituals	166
III.	Individual Villagers and Blessing	171
	A. Power, Ritual, and Men	171
	B. Garden Fertility	173
	C. Rain Ritual	174
	D. Healing and Power	175
	E. Other Rituals	175
	Conclusion	176

Chapter Four: Analysis of Religious Meaning

I.	Social Science Perspective	179
	A. Ecology	180
	B. Economy	182
	C. Sociology	183
	D. Ideology	184
	E. Symbology	186
	F. Psychology	187
	G. Synthesis	188

II. Traditional Melanesian Religions Perspective	191
A. Dynamic and Innovative	191
B. Integrated Worldview	192
C. "Abundant Life"	193
D. Reciprocal Relationships	195
E. Ancestors	196
F. Spirits and Powers	197
G. Ritual	197
H. Myths	198
I. Synthesis	199
III. Historical Phenomenology of Religion Perspective	202
A. Rites of Passage	202
B. Death and Rebirth	203
C. Transformation	207
D. Mystery of Life	208
E. Maturity and Identity	210
F. Synthesis	211
Conclusion	213

Chapter Five: Missiological Reflections

I. General Setting for Melanesian-Christian Inculturation	217
A. Gap Between Melanesian and Christian Identities	217
B. Basic Principles of Inculturation	218
C. Inculturation in Melanesia	220
II. Inculturation of Christian Initiation	223
A. Christian Initiation	223
B. Liturgical Inculturation	225
C. Initiation and Inculturation	227
D. African Efforts Towards Inculturation	231
E. Melanesian Efforts Towards Inculturation	232
F. Wosera Case Study	235
III. Contextual Theology	243
A. Basic Principles of Contextual Theology	243
B. Contextual Theology in Melanesia	245
C. Contextual Theology in Wosera	246
Conclusion	249
Epilogue	251

Appendix A: Myths and Narratives

1. Origin of Ancestors (Version 1)	255
2. Origin of Ancestors (Version 2)	256
3. Origin of Ancestors (Version 3)	257
4. Origin of Ancestors (Version 4)	258
5. Origin of Ancestors (Version 5)	259
6. Ramingien Flood Story (Version 1)	261
7. Ramingien Flood Story (Version 2)	262
8. Story of Anjiktakwa and Healing	263
9. Story of a Female Wale and Childbirth	264
10. Story of the Two Brothers/Story of Bangarap	265
11. Story of Gutakwa	270
12. Story of Sakindu	271
13. Story of the Kulelu	271
14. Story of Wanballe	272
15. Story of Wale Katoumo	273
16. Story of the Child Which Came Up from a Crab Hole	274
17. Story of Swamundu	275

Appendix B: Interview

Interview with Ambrose Mauyet	279
Selected Bibliography	285
Glossary	317
Index	321