

POISON AND MEDICINE

ETHNICITY, POWER,
AND VIOLENCE IN A
NIGERIAN CITY, 1966 TO 1986

Douglas A. Anthony

HEINEMANN
Portsmouth, NH

JAMES CURREY
Oxford

DAVID PHILIP
Cape Town

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Abbreviations and Note on Currency	xi
Introduction	1
1 Ethnicity Enshrined: Igbos in Hausaland	31
2 The Ironsi Regime and the Specter of "Igbo Domination": January–July 1966	55
3 Purging the North: August–October 1966	86
4 From "Savages" to "Brothers": Official Representations of the Igbo, 1966–1970	119
5 "They Will Return": The Contradictions of Abandoned Property	147
6 "I Need to Get to Kano": Post-War Igbo Migration	175
7 Rebuilding Community, 1970–1986	217
Conclusion: Religion and Ethnicity at Century's End	233
Appendix: The 1966 Disturbances	245

Bibliography

251

Index

267

A photographic essay follows page 140.