

DEREGULATION AND DIVERSIFICATION OF UTILITIES

edited by
Michael A. Crew
Graduate School of Management
Rutgers University
Newark, New Jersey

Kluwer Academic Publishers
Boston/Dordrecht/London

Contents

Authors and Discussants	vii
Preface and Acknowledgments	ix
1 Competition, Diversification, and Disintegration in Regulated Industries Michael A. Crew	1
2 Feasibility of Deregulation: A Public Choice Analysis Michael A. Crew and Charles K. Rowley	5
3 Price Cap Regulation of Telecommunications Services: A Long-Run Approach Ingo Vogelsang	21
4 Efficiency Aspects of Diversification by Public Utilities Roger Sherman	43
5 Efficient Income Measures and the Partially Regulated Firm Shimon Awerbuch	65
6 Decentralized Pricing in Natural Monopolies William A. Hamlen, Jr., and Susan S. Hamlen	89

7	New Technologies and Diversified Telecommunications Services: Policy Problems in an ISDN Environment Almarin Phillips	107
8	Contestable Markets and Telecommunications Richard E. Simnett	127
9	Competition and Cooperation in Deregulated Bulk Power Markets Scott R. Herriott	143
10	Diversification, Deregulation, and Competition: Cost of Capital Implications for Electric Utilities Leonard S. Hyman and Heidimarie West	165
11	The Financial Fallout from Chernobyl: Risk Perceptions and Regulatory Response Catherine C. Eckel and Theo Vermaelen	183
	Index	203