

Imagology Revisited

Waldemar Zacharasiewicz

Amsterdam - New York, NY 2010

Contents

Acknowledgements	5
Introduction: A Personal Memoir: Towards the Study of Imagology	11
National Stereotypes in Literature in the English Language: A Review of Research
Chapter 1: National Stereotypes in Literature in the English Language: A Review of Research	21
Imagology and the Theory of Climate
Chapter 2: The Theory of Climate and the Tableau of Nationalities	67
Chapter 3: Foreign Faces: Physiognomy and the Theory of Climate	85
Chapter 4: The Theory of Climate in North American Texts since 1776	101
Images of Europe and Its Nations
Chapter 5: Johannes Kepler, James Howell, and Thomas Lansius: The Competition between European Nations as a Literary Theme in the 17 th Century	123
Chapter 6: Transatlantic Differences: (Mis)Perceptions in Diachronic Perspective	171

Chapter 7: Sketches of a Traveler: Observations on a Dominant Theme in Washington Irving's Work	191
Chapter 8: Remarks on the Tradition and Function of Heterostereotypes in North American Fiction between 1900 and 1940	209
Chapter 9: A Separate Identity Asserted: Agrarian Affinities with European Culture	227
Imagology of Germany in American Culture
Chapter 10: Atlantic Double-Cross – Reciprocity of Influence: Germany as an Alternative Model in the Search for an American National Identity, 1830 to 1930	247
Chapter 11: Southern Alumni of German Universities. Fashioning a Tradition of Excellence	271
Chapter 12: German Ethnicity in the American South and the Permeability of Ethnic Borders	287
Chapter 13: The Rise and the Demise of German and Hybrid German-English in American (Popular) Culture	301
Chapter 14: Stereotypes in Walker Percy's Fiction	321
Images of Vienna and Austria in Anglophone Cultures
Chapter 15: Elective Affinities and Biased Encounters in the Alpine Provinces of Austria	341
Chapter 16: Masks, Minstrels and Melancholy: From Waltzing in the German Paris to Descending into Dreams of Decadence	345
Chapter 17: La joie-de-vivre et l'ombre des tombeaux: Vienna and Austria in Canadian Literature	373

Images of the English and Scots Abroad

Chapter 18: Charme à l' Anglaise – On the Image of the Restless Worldly-Wise from England in the Tableau of Nationalities 391

Chapter 19: The Rise of Cultural Nationalism in the New World: The Scottish Element and Example 403

Images of Jews in North American Culture

Chapter 20: Stereotypes and Sense of Identity of Jewish Southerners 425

Chapter 21: Self Perception and Presentation of Jewish Immigrants in North American Discourse, 1900-1940 443

Images of Italians in Anglophone Cultures

Chapter 22: Perfect Revenge: Observations on the Image of Italy in England in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries 467

Chapter 23: Perspectives on the Mediterranean: Americans as Transatlantic Sojourners 489

Bibliography 503

Index 565