

THE PEACEKEEPERS

An assessment of peacekeeping operations at the Arab–Israel interface

John Mackinlay

Preface by General F V Bull-Hansen

London
UNWIN HYMAN
Boston Sydney Wellington

Contents

Acknowledgements	xi
Preface	xvii
1 Introduction	1
Expectations versus reality	3
Peacekeeping forces 1974–84	5
Military problems in modern peacekeeping	6
The soldiers	6
The officers	7
The force commander	8
Organization	9
Command	9
Diplomatic responsibilities	10
Lack of institutional memory	11
The military factor in success and failure	13
Purpose of this study	16
Selecting the case studies	16
Method of assessment	18
Annexe 1A	19
Annexe 1B	20
Recent multinational peacekeeping forces	22
Notes	23
2 The situation in Lebanon	27
Introduction	27
Problems of cohesion in the state of Lebanon	28
No man's land in south Lebanon	30
Conflicting interests in the border region	31
Events leading to the deployment of UNIFIL	34
Reactions to the arrival of UNIFIL	35
The Israelis	35
Major Haddad's forces	37

THE PEACEKEEPERS

	The Palestinians	39
	The Lebanese government	39
	Notes	41
3	The United Nations Interim Force in Lebanon (UNIFIL)	43
	Deployment of UNIFIL	43
	The task facing General Erskine	45
	Assessment of UNIFIL's deployment and operations	51
	Enforcement without sanctions	54
	Command and control problems	57
	Integration and uniformity	60
	Logistics	61
	Assessment of failure	63
	Notes	65
4	The Second Multinational Force in Beirut (MNF 2) September 1982 to March 1984	68
	Introduction	68
	The Israeli invasion of Lebanon, June 1982	69
	Weakness of the Lebanese government	69
	'Operation Peace for Galilee'	73
	Evacuation from Beirut	75
	Massacres at Sabra and Shatilla	77
	The decision to return to Beirut	77
	Deployment of MNF 2	78
	Honeymoon period	80
	Negotiations	82
	Violence escalates	83
	Withdrawal	86
	Inherent problems of Beirut	87
	Confessional divisions	88
	Lack of a demilitarized zone	89
	Problems of the MNF	91
	Problems in negotiations	94
	Anticipating events	97
	Public opinion	99
	MNF command structure	100
	Use of force	106
	NATO forces as peacekeepers	110

CONTENTS

	Assessment of failure	112
	Notes	114
5	The United Nations Disengagement and Observer Force (UNDOF)	119
	Geographic and military significance of the Golan	119
	Events leading to the disengagement agreement between Israel and Syria	123
	Provisions of the agreement	127
	Assessment of the agreement	130
	Tasks given to UNDOF	133
	Organization and deployment of UNDOF	134
	The disengagement phase	136
	Long-term conduct of operations	138
	HQ UNDOF	140
	Infantry battalions	141
	Observer groups	141
	Logistics	142
	Violations of the agreement	143
	Violation procedures	144
	The command factor	145
	Assessment of UNDOF	149
	Annexe 5A	152
	Annexe 5B	153
	Notes	157
6	The Multinational Force and Observers in the Sinai (MFO)	160
	Peaceful settlement in the Sinai, 1974–81	160
	The treaty and protocol	168
	Preparations and deployment to the Sinai	172
	The ground	176
	Deployment and Functions of the MFO	178
	Director-General	178
	Force HQ	180
	Liaison	181
	Civilian Observer Unit (COU)	183
	The MFO's presence by land and sea	185
	Logistics	187

THE PEACEKEEPERS

	Factor of command	189
	Annexe 6A	193
	Annexe 6B	194
	Notes	195
7	The peacekeeping force commander	199
	Command as a factor of success	199
	The critical phase of the operation	202
	The characteristics and functions of a commander	206
	Planning the task	207
	Maintaining the corporate identity of the group	209
	Notes	211
8	The characteristics of success and failure in modern peacekeeping forces	213
	Mandates	214
	Organization of peacekeeping forces	216
	Integrated forces	217
	Operating problems in an integrated force	218
	Federally organized forces	221
	The hostage effect: why it sometimes doesn't work	222
	Large nations and small nations as peacekeepers	223
	Operating areas for peacekeeping forces	225
	Liaison	227
	General conclusions	229
	Index	231