

Religion and Spirituality in
South Africa
New Perspectives

EDITED BY DUNCAN BROWN

UNIVERSITY OF KWAZULU-NATAL PRESS

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
List of Abbreviations	ix
Introduction	1
Religion, Spirituality and the Postcolonial: A Perspective from the South
DUNCAN BROWN
PART 1: Politics, Governance and the Public Sphere
Chapter 1
The South African Constitutional Court's Reading of the Right to Freedom of Religion	27
PATRICK LENTA
Chapter 2
Faith-Based Organisations, Local Governance and Citizenship in South Africa	54
LAURENCE PIPER
Chapter 3
Thabo Mbeki's Bible: The Role of Religion in the South African Public Realm after Liberation	78
GERALD WEST

Chapter 4
Islamisation and Muslim Institutions/Organisations in South Africa		107
SULEMAN DANGOR
Chapter 5
The Modern Pagan Witch: Negotiating a Contested Religious Identity in Post-Apartheid South Africa		124
DALE WALLACE
Chapter 6
The Decline of Islamist Discourse and the Rise of New Spiritualities in South African Islam?		145
TAHIR FUZILE SITOTO
PART 2: Identity, Agency and Representation
Chapter 7
Exorcising the Past: Voices for the Present		167
MICHAEL GREEN
Chapter 8
Eastern Mosaic : Shades of Hindu Women in South African Media		191
SUBESHINI MOODLEY
Chapter 9
Remembering the Bushmen: Nostalgia and Postcolonial Spiritualities		205
DENNIS WALDER
Chapter 10
‘Speaking with Our Spirits’: The Representation of Religion in Marlene van Niekerk’s Agaat		219
CHERYL STOBIE
Chapter 11
Building a New Society Using the Building Blocks of Ubuntu/Botho/Vbuthu		236
MBULELO VIZIKHUNGO MZAMANE

Chapter 12
The Mediation of Public and Private Selves in the Performance of Sermons and Narratives of Near-Death Experiences in the Nazarite Church	249
NKOSINATHI SITHOLE
Afterword
Embedded Knowledges and the Challenges of the Postcolonial Project	266
AHMED BAWA
Notes on Contributors	281
Index	285