

The Nature of Entrustment

Intimacy, Exchange, and the Sacred in Africa

Parker Shipton

1

Yale University Press NEW HAVEN & LONDON

Contents

Preface ix

Acknowledgments xv

CHAPTER 1 Introduction 1

CHAPTER 2 Fiduciary Culture: A Thread in Anthropological Theory 17

CHAPTER 3 Luo and Their Livelihood: The Great Lake Basin and Beyond 40

CHAPTER 4 Entrustment Incarnate: Humans and Animals over Years and Generations 81

CHAPTER 5 Teaming Up: Borrowing, Lending, and Getting By 99

CHAPTER 6 Marriage on the Installment Plan: The Present and the Promised 120

CHAPTER 7 Debts in Life and Death: Shared Responsibility and the Funerary Flow 158

CHAPTER 8 In the Passing: Inheritance of Things and Persons 173

CHAPTER 9 Blood, Fire, and Word: Luo, Christian, and Luo-Christian
Sacrifice 187

CHAPTER 10 Conclusion: Entrustment and Obligation 205

Notes 223

Glossary 249

Bibliography 253

Index 271

Illustrations follow p. 80