
CHOREOMANIA

Dance and Disorder

KÉLINA GOTMAN

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Illustrations ix
Series Editor Foreword xi
Preface xiii
Acknowledgements xv

Introduction: Choreomania,
Another Orientalism 1

PART I: EXCAVATING DANCE IN THE ARCHIVE

1 *Obscuritas Antiquitatis: Institutions,
Affiliations, Marginalia* 25
2 Madness after Foucault: Medieval Bacchanals 41
3 *Translatio: St. Vitus's Dance,
Demonism, and the Early Modern* 70

4 The Convulsionaries: Antics on the French Revolutionary Stage 90
5 *Mobiles, Mobs, and Monads:
Nineteenth-Century Crowd
Forms* 112
6 *Médecine Rétrospective: Hysteria's
Archival Drag* 139

PART II: COLONIAL AND POSTCOLONIAL STAGES: SCENES OF FERMENT IN THE FIELD

7 *'Sicily Implies Asia and Africa':
Tarantellas and Comparative Method* 171
8 Ecstasy-Belonging in Madagascar and Brazil 196

9	Ghost Dancing: Excess, Waste, and the American West	224
10	'The Gift of Seeing Resemblances': Cargo Cults in the Antipodes	252
11	Monstrous Grace: Blackness and the New Dance 'Crazes'	271
			Coda: Moving Fields, Modernity, and the Bacchic Chorus 298
			Bibliography 315
			Index 341