
Conflict & Collusion in Sierra Leone

DAVID KEEN

*Reader in Complex Emergencies
Development Studies Institute
London School of Economics & Political Science*

A PROJECT OF
The International Peace Academy

James Currey
OXFORD

palgrave
NEW YORK

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
Foreword by David M. Malone	x
President, International Peace Academy, New York

Map of Sierra Leone	xii
---------------------	-----

1

Introduction	1
--------------	---

2

Historical Background: Uneven Development	8
--	---

3

The Rebellion I: Political or Economic?	36
--	----

4

The Rebellion II: Grievances & Shame	56
---	----

5

The APC & the 'Failure' of Counter-Insurgency	82
--	----

6

Military Coup: & Military Abuses	92
-------------------------------------	----

7

'Sell-Game': A Strangely Co-operative Conflict	107
---	-----

8

Sobels & the Civil Defence	132
-------------------------------	-----

9

Aid & Violence	160
-------------------	-----

10

Emergency Aid as a Welfare Intervention: Some Deficiencies	177
---	-----

11

From Abidjan to the May 1997 Junta: Collaboration comes to Town	193
--	-----

12

The AFRC/RUF: Rise & Fall	208
------------------------------	-----

13

The 'Rebels' Return to Freetown	219
------------------------------------	-----

14

Peace & its Discontents	248
----------------------------	-----

15

Towards A Lasting Peace?	267
-----------------------------	-----

16

Conclusion	289
Bibliography	320
Index	333