

Ahmadu Bello
Sardauna of Sokoto

Values and Leadership
in Nigeria

John N. Paden

HODDER AND STOUGHTON
LONDON SYDNEY AUCKLAND TORONTO

Contents

Acknowledgements	vi
INTRODUCTION	1
Chapter 1 Perspectives and Sources	3
1. Questions and perspectives: Who is Ahmadu Bello?	3
2. Concepts	14
3. Themes	20
4. Sources	26
Chapter 2 The Sokoto Legacy	37
1. Values and leadership in the early caliphate	37
2. Emirate values and leadership	44
3. Raising a prince	48
4. The legacy of caliphate and emirate culture	53
Part I Early Life and Career (1909–49)
Chapter 3 Education and Values (1909–31)	67
1. The British Empire in Sokoto (1909)	67
2. A child is born to the family of Ibrahim	72
3. Learning religious obligations	75
4. Learning cultural values	80
5. Western education comes to the north	85
6. Character development and learning western skills	93
7. Personality, values and leadership	100

Chapter 4 Work and Leadership (1931–49)	103
1. Teaching and family life (1931–34)	103
2. Administration and issues of succession (1934–38)	108
3. Exile and growth in Gusau (1938–43)	113
4. Challenge and response (1943)	119
5. Return to Sokoto (1944–54)	123
6. Prelude to political life	128
7. Personality, values and leadership	132

Part II Transitions to Independence (1949–60)

Chapter 5 Political Parties and Leadership	137
1. Teachers and writers: The Katsina-Kaduna-Zaria connection	139
2. Traditional leaders and businessmen (young and old)	145
3. A united front: the Sardauna emerges as leader	149
4. Opposition parties and leaders	155
5. Shaping the rules	160
6. The electoral process	164
7. Political values and leadership	172

Chapter 6 Traditional Leadership: Links with the Past	178
1. Perspectives on traditional leadership	178
2. Ministry of Local Government and Council of Chiefs	183
3. Reforming the Native Authorities	188
4. Succession and deposition of traditional leaders	195
5. Gateways and links with traditional leaders	202
6. Judicial reforms of 1959	205
7. Traditional values and leadership	213

Chapter 7 Civil Service and the Younger Generation: Links with the Future	216
1. Transitions from colonial control	216
2. Perspectives on transition	220
3. The first generation of northern civil servants	230
4. The second generation	235
5. "The young men": third generation	240
6. The growth of the Premier's Office	245
7. Administrative leadership	249

Chapter 8 Development Strategies	252
1. The development agenda: Northernization	252
2. Education and human resources	257

3. The Institute of Administration	261
4. Industrial development and trade	264
5. Infrastructural linkage: Roads, rails and phones	268
6. Agriculture: Foundation of development strategies	270
7. Style of development: Bold action and crash programs	275
 Chapter 9 Religious Issues	 279
1. Perspectives on the pilgrimage.	279
2. Pilgrimage arrangements	282
3. The Nigerian Pilgrims Mission (1958)	286
4. Follow up to the Nigerian Pilgrims Mission	295
5. Renewed concern for Islamic education	299
6. Domestic religious organizations	303
7. Religious values and leadership	308
 Chapter 10 Consolidation of the Northern Community	 313
1. Perspectives on regionalism	313
2. Development of a new capital: Kaduna	318
3. Links with the emirate provinces	322
4. Links with Borno	335
5. Links with the Middle Belt provinces	343
6. The Northern Cameroon issue (1959)	352
7. Consolidation of the northern community	357
 Chapter 11 Values and Leadership	 361
1. Perspectives on leadership	361
2. Sokoto poets: The qualities of leadership	364
3. More Sokoto poets: In the footsteps of the Shehu and Bello	370
4. Northern images of leadership	375
5. Aminu Kano's challenge to the status quo	378
6. International values and leadership	384
7. Personality, values and leadership	388
 Part III Early Independence (1960–66)
 Chapter 12 Political Parties and Leadership	 395
1. Perspectives on early independence	395
2. Perspectives of Aminu Kano	402
3. The plebiscite and Northern Regional election (1961)	407
4. Regional political leadership	412
5. Northern leadership in Lagos	420

6. The federal elections (1964) and aftermath	426
7. Political values and leadership	432

Chapter 13 Traditional Leadership 437

1. Reforming the Native Authorities	437
2. Succession and deposition of traditional leaders	441
3. Inquiry into the Kano Native Authority	446
4. Kaduna perspectives on the Kano affair	449
5. Kano perspectives	454
6. The search for traditional leadership in Benue Province	459
7. Traditional values and leadership	462

Chapter 14 The Civil Service and The Younger Generation 467

1. Changes in the civil service	467
2. The Premier's Office	471
3. The Private Secretaries	477
4. The press secretaries	482
5. The rise of a regional judiciary	486
6. Relations between the civil service and the politicians	489
7. Administrative values and leadership	494

Chapter 15 Development Strategies 496

1. Development goals, resources and strategies	496
2. Education and human resources	501
3. The search for capital and technology	509
4. Industrial programs	514
5. Infrastructural foundations	519
6. Agricultural development	523
7. Managing development	526

Chapter 16 Religious Issues 529

1. Pilgrimage	530
2. International Muslim organizations	533
3. Travels to Muslim and African countries	543
4. The Jama'atu Nasril Islam and Council of Mallams	548
5. Perspectives on religious organization	556
6. The conversion campaigns	566
7. Perspectives on religious leadership	569

Chapter 17 Community Issues 579

1. The growth of Kaduna	579
2. Competition and sub-nationalism in Kano	583
3. Consolidation of links with Borno	587

4. Relations with Benue and Plateau provinces	591
5. Toward cultural unity in the north	594
6. Relations with the national community	598
7. Multiple levels of community	603
Chapter 18 Values and Leadership	607
1. Leadership style: Financial and personal	607
2. Qualities of leadership: The Sokoto Poets	615
3. More Sokoto poets	626
4. Other emirate poets	633
5. Northern images of leadership	638
6. Perspectives on leadership	640
7. National leadership	647
Part IV Crisis and Reconstruction
Chapter 19 Death and Response	653
1. Sokoto and Medina	653
2. Return to Kaduna	656
3. Death comes at night	658
4. The morning after	662
5. The plotters	665
6. The poets lament	668
7. Other responses	673
Chapter 20 The Search for Leadership and Community	678
1. The First Military Government (January–July 1966): Leadership	678
2. The First Military Government: Community	686
3. The Second Military Government (post–July 1966)	691
4. Break up of the north (1967–68)	696
5. The search for community	701
6. The search for leadership	705
7. Perspectives on Ahmadu Bello	708
Conclusion	715
1. Themes of political development	715
2. The seasons of a man's life	722
Appendices	727
Appendix 1 The Nigerian Legacy: Bibliographic Background	729
Appendix 2 Hausa Poetry and Songs Cited in Text	761
Index	787