

TRINIDAD
IN TRANSITION

THE YEARS AFTER SLAVERY

DONALD WOOD

Published for the Institute of Race Relations, London

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

1986

CONTENTS

Author's Preface and Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	i
PART I. THE BEGINNINGS
I. The Environment and Man	13
II. The People before Emancipation	31
III. The Aftermath of Apprenticeship	46
PART II. THE IMMIGRATION
IV. Americans and Africans	59
V. The Europeans	81
VI. The Arrival of the Indians	107
VII. The Indians become Established	126
VIII. The Chinese	160
PART III. THE TENSIONS IN SOCIETY
IX. The French and the English	171
X. The Crisis of Religion	190
XI. The Problem of Education	212
XII. The Creoles and Society	238
PART IV. THE NEW ERA
XIII. The Coming of Gordon	265
XIV. The New Era	281
Epilogue	302
Bibliography	305
Index	311