

---

ISLAMIC FUNDAMENTALISM AND MODERNITY

---

PROFESSOR
WILLIAM MONTGOMERY WATT

Emeritus Professor of Arabic and Islamic Studies University of Edinburgh

ROUTLEDGE
London and New York

---

CONTENTS

---

I	THE TRADITIONAL SELF-IMAGE OF ISLAM	1
	1 The unchanging static world	3
	2 The finality of Islam	6
	3 The self-sufficiency of Islam	8
	4 Islam in history	14
	5 The idealization of Muḥammad and early Islam	17
II	THE RELIGIOUS INSTITUTION AND ITS DECLINE	24
	1 The religious institution at the zenith of its power	25
	2 Totalitarian strategies of the religious institution	29
	3 The loss of legislative and judicial responsibilities	33
	4 Changes in education	38
	5 The present position	42
III	THE BEGINNINGS OF ISLAMIC RESURGENCE	44
	1 Responses to the European impact	44
	2 The erosion of the traditional self-image	47
	3 Conservative reformers and activists	51
	(a) Muḥammad 'Abduh	51
	(b) Ḥasan al-Bannā'	53
	(c) Mawdudi	55
	(d) Colonel Qadhafi	57
	(e) The Ahmadiyya sect	58
	(f) Concluding remark	60
IV	THE LIBERAL SEARCH FOR A NEW IDENTITY	62
	1 The early liberals	62
	2 Contemporary liberal thinking	65

CONTENTS

V	THE SELF-IMAGE AND CONTEMPORARY PROBLEMS	71
	1 The recovery of a truer self-image	71
	2 Intellectual reconstruction	77
	(a) The linguistic expression of religious truth	80
	(b) The human element in revelation	82
	(c) The uniqueness of Islam	85
	(d) The acceptance of historico-critical methods	86
	(e) The acceptance of Western science	87
	3 The linking of religion and politics	88
	(a) The changing shape of the Islamic polity	89
	(b) The legitimation of rule	91
	(c) The relation of religion to politics	92
	4 International politics	96
	(a) The perception of a hostile world	96
	(b) Islam in the world of nations	102
	5 Social issues	105
	(a) Opening the gate of Ijtihād	106
	(b) Some particular social problems	108
	(c) Human rights	111
	(d) The position of women	114
	6 Islam and other religions	117
	7 Towards a truer self-image	123
VI	THE IRANIAN EXPERIENCE	125
	1 Shī'ism in Iran	125
	2 The Iranian religious institution	129
	3 The preparation for revolution	132
	4 The revolutionary self-image	136
VII	EPILOGUE	140
	Glossary	144
	Notes	146
	Bibliography	153
	Index	156