

CITY OF

EXTREMES

THE SPATIAL POLITICS OF JOHANNESBURG

Martin J. Murray

CONTENTS

- vii List of Maps
- ix List of Illustrations
- xi Preface
- xxvii Acknowledgments
- xxxii Abbreviations
- 1 INTRODUCTION
Spatial Politics in the Precarious City
- 23 PART I
Making Space:
City Building and the Production of the
Built Environment
- 29 CHAPTER 1
The Restless Urban Landscape:
The Evolving Spatial Geography of Johannesburg
- 59 CHAPTER 2
The Flawed Promise of the High-Modernist City:
City Building at the Apex of Apartheid Rule
- 83 PART II
Unraveling Space:
Centrifugal Urbanism and the Convulsive City
- 87 CHAPTER 3
Hollowing out the Center:
Johannesburg Turned Inside Out

137	CHAPTER 4
	Worlds Apart: The Johannesburg Inner City and the Making of the Outcast Ghetto
173	CHAPTER 5
	The Splintering Metropolis: Laissez-faire Urbanism and Unfettered Suburban Sprawl
205	PART III
	Fortifying Space: Siege Architecture and Anxious Urbanism
213	CHAPTER 6
	Defensive Urbanism after Apartheid: Spatial Partitioning and the New Fortification Aesthetic
245	CHAPTER 7
	Entrepreneurial Urbanism and the Private City
283	CHAPTER 8
	Reconciling Arcadia and Utopia: Gated Residential Estates at the Metropolitan Edge
321	EPILOGUE
	Putting Johannesburg in Its Place: The Ordinary City
333	Appendix
337	Notes
423	Bibliography
463	Index