

Money and General Equilibrium Theory

From Walras to Pareto (1870–1923)

Pascal Bridel

Professor of Economics, University of Lausanne, Switzerland

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Lyme, US

Contents

List of Figures	vi
Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	viii
1 The First Lausanne Decade: General Equilibrium and the Equation of Exchange (1871–1880)	1
2 Periodical Market, Equation of Exchange and ‘Forced Saving’: Walras’s Applied Theory of Money	47
3 From the Théorie de la monnaie to the Etudes d’économie politique appliquée : More Variations on the Same Themes (1886–1898)	79
4 The Last Monetary Model (1899–1900), or the Ultimate Triumph of Internal Consistency	110
5 The Fate of a Still-born Tradition: Pareto and After	150
Bibliography	176
Index	191