

GLOBALISM, REGIONALISM AND NATIONALISM

ASIA IN SEARCH OF ITS ROLE IN THE
TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY

Yoshinobu Yamamoto

 BLACKWELL
Publishers

CONTENTS

List of Contributors	vii
Foreword Hideo Sato	ix
Introduction Yoshinobu Yamamoto	1
1 Globalism, Regionalism and Nationalism: Asia in Search of its Role in the Twenty-first Century Takehiko Kamo	12
2 Avoiding Choices, Pursuing Opportunities: Asia in International Affairs, 1996 and 1998 Davis B. Bobrow	32
3 Collective Identity and Epochal Change in the International System Rodney Bruce Hall	45
4 Challenges of and Responses to Globalization: the Case of South-east Asia Prasert Chittiwatanapong	70
5 Transnational Flows of People and International Exchanges: Phenomena and Activities Kenichiro Hirano	93
6 Regionalisms in East Asia and the Asia-Pacific Ryuhei Hatsuse	105
7 Japan and Micro-regionalism: Constructing the Japan Sea Rim Zone Glenn D. Hook	126
8 International Relations Theory and Chinese Foreign Policy Tatsumi Okabe	142

9	China and Japan in Search of their Roles in the Twenty-first Century: Regionalism or Globalism? Shigeaki Uno	154
10	Three Faces of Japan: Nationalist, Regionalist and Globalist Futures Tsuneo Akaha	171
11	The Impact of Changes in the International System on Domestic Politics: Japan in the 1990s Shigeeko N. Fukai	199
12	Japan's Approach to Gender and Development: Plurality in Development Cooperation Policy and Practice Satoko Kurata	226
	Index	251