

Health Inequalities in European Countries

Edited by JOHN FOX
Social Statistics Research Unit, City University

Gower

Aldershot, Brookfield USA, Hong Kong, Singapore, Sydney

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	xi
Acknowledgements	xvi
List of contributors	xvii

PART I BACKGROUND

1 Introduction John Fox and Roy Carr-Hill	1
2 Inequalities in health: the country debate Pierre Aiach and Roy Carr-Hill	19
3 Policy issues in health inequality Alex Scott-Samuel and Julia Szalai	50

PART II DIFFERENCES IN MORTALITY

4 An international comparison of distributions of ages-at-death Julian Le Grand	75
5 Differential mortality by cause of death: comparison between selected European countries Annette Leclerc	92
6 Sex, gender and survival: inequalities of life chances between European men and women Nicky Hart	109
7 Adult mortality and level of education: a comparison of six countries Tapani Valkonen	142
8 Mortality: a comparison of within-country differentials based on selected occupational groups reported in a variety of countries Elsebeth Lynge, Otto Andersen and Lars-Gunnar Horte	163
9 A compilation of some aspects of area mortality differentials in some European countries Peter Jozan	173

PART III DIFFERENCES IN MORBIDITY

10 A comparison of measures of inequality in morbidity Mildred Blaxter	199
11 Measuring European inequality: the use of height data Roderick Floud	231
12 Gender and class inequalities in health: understanding the differentials Sara Arber	250
13 Inequalities in prognosis: socio-economic differences in cancer and heart disease survival David Leon and

Richard G. Wilkinson

280

- 14 Social health inequalities in South European countries:
is it a different problem? Oriol Ramis-Juan and Katerina Sokou

301

PART IV EXPLANATIONS

- 15 The role of health services in relation to inequalities in health in Europe Sally Macintyre 317
- 16 Class and tenure mobility: do they explain social inequalities in health among young adults in Britain? *K. Fogelman,
A. J. Fox and C. Power* 333
- 17 Steps towards explaining social differentials in morbidity:
the case of West Germany Johannes Siegrist 353
- 18 Way-of-life, stress and differences in morbidity between occupational classes Jeddi Hasan 372
- 19 Social inequalities in health: a complementary perspective
Aaron Antonovsky 386
- Index 399