

The Boers in East Africa

Ethnicity and Identity

BRIAN M. DU TOIT

BERGIN & GARVEY
Westport, Connecticut • London

Contents

Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgment	xi
Introduction	1
Chapter 1. The East African Scramble	13
German East Africa	13
British East Africa	18
Chapter 2. Events in the South	27
The Anglo-Boer War	27
Divisions	29
Postwar Conditions	30
Afrikaner Diaspora	31
Chapter 3. Exploring the Hinterland	35
Hans and Levina du Toit	36
Reasons for Dissatisfaction	38
Talks About a Trek	41
The Commission	42
Exploring and Trekking	45
Chapter 4. Trekking	47
Treks to German East Africa	49
British East African Protectorate	56
Were There Black Trekkers?	66
Trekker Cultural Experience	68
Entering the Frontier	70

Chapter 5. Settlement	75
Emerging Afrikaner Settlements in East Africa	76
Connections and Relations	81
World War One	95
Chapter 6. The Economy	105
Material Possessions	105
Representation	106
Labor	111
Markets	112
Cattle and People	116
Economic Security	118
Chapter 7. The Church	125
Pastoral Care	127
Cooperation and Division	129
Stabilization	134
Mission Work	140
Chapter 8. Education	147
Farm Schools	148
Schools and Government Policy	152
Christian National Education	158
Afrikaner National Education	160
Chapter 9. Transitions	167
Repatriation	167
Withdrawing	168
Remaining	171
Conclusion	173
Appendix A. Territorial Designations and Leadership	177
Appendix B. Boers Who Accompanied Organized Treks to East Africa	179
Appendix C. List of Dominees Who Visited or Served the Three Afrikaans Denominations in Kenya	185
References	187
Index	201