

Zimbabwe and the New Elite

RUTH WEISS

British Academic Press
An imprint of I.B. Tauris & Co Ltd
London • New York

CONTENTS

	page
Foreword by Nadine Gordimer	vii
List of Abbreviations	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Zimbabwe's Reconciliation with Rhodesia: a summary	xiii
Introduction: anatomy of reconciliation	xvii

Part I: Historical Background

1. Getting Together: the policy of reconciliation	3
2. The Lancaster House Game	7
3. The Land and its People	13
4. Myths of the Past	17
5. Who Were the Rhodesians?	27
6. The Dispossessed	32
7. No More Jaw Jaw: the Bush War	38

Part II: Post-Independence

8. Regret but No Remorse?	49
9. Reconciliation in Practice	58
10. Rhodes and Zimbabweans	71
11. The Aged	82
12. Be a Sport: 'play, play on and play the game!'	86
13. Love Thy Neighbour	92
14. Church	102
15. Education	109
16. In Sickness and in Health	118

17. Public Service	126
18. The Media	134
 Part III: Economic Relations after Independence
19. The Black Elite	139
20. Economic Constraints	145
21. Wealth Creation	151
22. Black Advancement	163
23. Redressing Imbalances: labour relations	173
24. The Money Elite	180
25. The 'C' Factor: corruption	185
26. Agriculture	191
 Conclusion	 202
Notes	206
Bibliography	213
Index	217