

Strategic Arms Control after SALT

Stephen J. Cimbala
Editor

A Scholarly Resources Imprint
WILMINGTON, DELAWARE

Contents

Introduction by Stephen J. Cimbala, ix
About the Contributors, xix

Fundamental Questions about Arms Control

George H. Quester
Recovering Our Bearings on Arms Control, 3

Louis René Beres
Arms Control, Ideology, and Self-Affirmation:
Exploring the Linkages, 19

Alvin M. Weinberg and Jack N. Barkenbus
Morality, Arms Control, and Strategic Defenses, 37

Offenses and Defenses: Arms Control in a Mixed Environment

Donald M. Snow
Offenses, Defenses, and the Future of Arms Control, 55

Michael F. Altfeld and Stephen J. Cimbala
Turning Back the Clock: SDI and the Restoration of MAD, 75

David S. Sorenson

Arms Control and New Weapons Technology: The Case of the Advanced Cruise Missile, 95

Linkages: Arms Control and Politico-Military Strategies

Keith B. Payne

The Dilemmas of Deterrence, Defense, and Disarmament, 115

Cynthia A. Cannizzo

The North American Dyad: U.S.-Canadian Relations and the Prospects for Arms Control, 135

Patrick M. Morgan

Arms Control and Strategic Surprise, 151

Making Arms Control Work: Near- and Long-Term Challenges

Charles R. Gellner

Verification and Intelligence: Some Interface Issues, 175

Stephen J. Cimbala

The U.S. Prognosis for Arms Control: A Guarded Affirmative, 197

Index, 225