

GERMAN UNIFICATION IN EUROPEAN PERSPECTIVE

edited by
Wolfgang Heisenberg

Centre for European Policy Studies, Brussels

BRASSEY'S (UK)

(A Member of the Maxwell Macmillan Group)
LONDON * WASHINGTON * NEW YORK

Contents

List of Contributors	3
Introduction	5
Wolfgang Heisenberg

Part I: Negotiating German Unification

The German-German negotiations and the "Two-Plus-Four" talks	15
Peter Ludlow
The European Community's negotiations on German unification	28
David Spence

Part II: Political Issues

Like fire and water? Two Germanies in one	57
Anne-Marie Le Gloannec
German unification: views from Germany's neighbours	70
Renata Fritsch-Bournazel
Political and institutional implications for the European Community	88
Roger Morgan
European security after German unification	106
Wolfgang Heisenberg

Part III: Economic and Social Issues

Eastern Europe, Germany and the EC: a framework for analysing their economic integration	133
Giorgio Basevi

Macroeconomic management in the new Germany: implications for the EMS and EMU Daniel Gros and Alfred Steinherr	165
The economic integration of Germany: two tales based on trade theory Paul De Grauwe	189
Adaptation problems in the former GDR: an economic analysis Jürgen Kröger	199
Environment policy for the former GDR Ernst Ulrich von Weizsäcker and Helmut Schreiber	217
Demographic and social trends in a united Germany Charlotte Höhn	227
Adapting East German agriculture to the EC agricultural market Horst Schilling	249
Intra-Community trade: problems of transition and adjustment Rudolf Brauer	263

Part IV: Challenges for European Integration

Extending the Structural Fund commitments to East Germany Koldo E. Echebarria and Günther F. Schäfer	281
German unification and the EC's budget and budgetary policy Gerhard Stahl	299
The free movement of persons Lammy Betten	317
EC transport policy in the wake of German unification Albrecht Frohnmeyer	342