

ISRAEL AT THE CROSSROADS

The Challenge of Peace

Edited by
EFRAIM KARSH and GREGORY MAHLER

BRITISH ACADEMIC PRESS
An imprint of I.B.Tauris & Co Ltd
LONDON · NEW YORK

Contents

List of Tables	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction Efraim Karsh and Gregory Mahler	1
Part I: The Historical Context
1. Some of the Forks in the Road David Vital	9
Part II: The Challenge of Peace
2. Peace at Last Efraim Karsh	29
3. Will the Arab Public Accept Peace with Israel? Evidence from Surveys in Three Arab Societies Mark Tessler and Jamal Sanad	48
4. The Prospects for Peace between Israel and Syria: A Syrian View M. Zuhair Diab	71
5. The Political Legacy of de facto Annexation: Rabin, the Territories and the Regime Crisis in Israel Ian S. Lustick	87
6. An Israeli–Palestinian Security Regime: The Role of Peacekeeping Forces Naomi Weinberger	104
Part III: The Domestic Arena
7. A New Beginning? The 1992 Israeli General Election David Capitanchik	125

8.	Territory, State and Power: The 1992 Election Gad Barzilai	137
9.	The Arab Minority and the 1992 Election: Intregation or Alienation? Elie Rekhess	150
10.	The Rabin Coalition and its Implications for Future Reform Gregory Mahler	168
Part IV: Israel and the World
11.	The Future of US-Israeli Relations Yossi M. Mekelberg	185
12.	Israel and the Successor States of the Soviet Union: A Preliminary Analysis Robert O. Freedman	198
13.	Israeli-European Relations in the 1990s Rosemary Hollis	218
	Notes	231
	Notes on Contributors	258
	Index	262