

Reclaiming Africa

Edited by James Shikwati

Foreword by George B. N. Ayittey

The Inter Region Economic Network (IREN Kenya)
Nairobi, Kenya

Contents

Introduction from the editor	v
Foreword	ix
Acknowledgment	xv
Message from the Minister for Trade and Industry, Kenya	xvii
Message from His Worship the Mayor of Mombasa, Kenya	xix
Opening Remarks	xxi
List of Abbreviations	1
Chapter 1: Trade and Development
1. The Prospects for Economic Freedom in Africa	7
2. Intra-Africa Trade	27
3. Internal Barriers to Trade in the Developing World	33
Chapter 2: Entrepreneurship in Africa
1. The Lost Sciences of Africa	51
2. Entrepreneurship: Key to Africa's Development	61
Chapter 3: Conflicts in Africa
1. Land Tenure, Livelihoods and Conflicts in the Great Lakes Region	75
2. Pastoral Conflict and Small Arms: The Kenya-Uganda Border Region	119
Chapter 4: Agriculture
1. Agricultural Subsidies by Industrialized Countries and the Consequences for the Rural Poor in Africa	183
2. The Flower Industry in Africa: The Case of Kenya	191
3. Practical Proposal on Adding Value to the Kenyan Coffee Co-operatives	203
Chapter 5: Environment and Development.
1. How to Protect People and Wildlife in Kenya	215
2. Environmental Colonialism: "Saving" Africa from Africans	221
Chapter 6: Policy Innovation.
1. The Blue Print for Africa's Economic Rejuvenation	251
2. Without Kenyatta or Moi: Voting for a Change	287
3. Wealth Creation Through the Management of Systematic Risks in Africa: The Case of Kenya	329
4. Seven Principles of Sound Public Policy	339
Index	348
About the Authors	353