

Pacific Research Monograph

18

Bounteous bestowal
The economic history of Norfolk Island

M.L. Treadgold

Series editor Helen Hughes

National Centre for Development Studies
Research School of Pacific Studies
The Australian National University
Canberra
1988

Contents

Preface		vii
Acknowledgements		xiii
Chapter 1	'This unexpected ... Isle': introduction	1
Chapter 2	False perceptions: the first European economy 1788-1814	6
Chapter 3	'A great Hulk or Penitentiary': the convict economy of 1825-1856	36
Chapter 4	'Comfortable circumstances': the Pitcairner economy, 1856-1896	70
	Note: Estimates of the monetary component of gross domestic product, 1861 and 1895	97
Chapter 5	Closer ties: the seeds of development, 1896-1914	101
Chapter 6	Booms and busts: export instability and economic growth, 1914-1939	126
Chapter 7	'A kind of stationary aircraft carrier': the war-time economy, 1939-1945	163
Chapter 8	Fits and starts: post-war economic performance, 1945-1963	182
Chapter 9	Tourism and tax avoidance: sustained expansion, 1963-1980	208
Chapter 10	Greater autonomy: potential problems and actual performance, 1980-1985	248
Chapter 11	Retrospect and prospect: conclusion	267
Plates		289
References		299
Index		311