

The Figural Jew

Politics and Identity in Postwar French Thought

SARAH HAMMERSCHLAG

The University of Chicago Press Chicago and London

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

- |   |  |     |
|---|--|-----|
| 1 | Roots, Rootlessness, and Fin de Siècle France                              | 25  |
| 2 | Stranger and Self: Sartre's Jew  | 68  |
|   | I. Anti-Semite and Jew  | 68  |
|   | II. Dialectical History, Unhappy Consciousness,and the Messiah | 93  |
| 3 | The Ethics of Uprootedness: Emmanuel Levinas'sPostwar Project          | 117 |
| 4 | Literary Unrest: Maurice Blanchot's Rewritingof Levinas                | 166 |
| 5 | "The Last of the Jews": Jacques Derrida and theCase of the Figure      | 201 |
|   | I. The Cut  | 206 |
|   | II. The Exemplar  | 228 |
|   | Conclusion  | 261 |
|   | Selected Bibliography   | 269 |
|   | Index   | 287 |