

Jean-Jacques Purusi Sadiki

Women, Peace and Conflicts in Traditional African Society

Understanding the contradictions related to violence against women in Central Africa

L'Harmattan

CONTENTS

Foreword
African woman: unrecognised, unknown.....	11
General Introduction.....	17
Part one:
The political sociology of the Great Lakes region.....	27
Towards a new analytical framework.....	29
An agro-pastoral economy.....	33
Social categories in the Great Lakes.....	35
The socio-political environment of the Great Lakes	39
The time limits of research: from the 1st millennium BC to 1896 AD.....	43
Part Two
Women in the socio-political evolution of the Great Lakes	45
Women and the political founding myths of the region	47
Woman as a symbol of the force of nature	59
Women, taboos and prohibitions	63
The political importance of women	67
Part Three
Women in the face of political violence.....	81
Women, actors in political violence	83
Women, victims of political violence.....	93
Part Four
Women in Conflict Management	101
Factors in good conflict management.....	103
Social bonds of extreme intensity.....	117
Women, tradition and conflict prevention	123
Traditional justice	135
General Conclusion	157
General Bibliography	161