

REACTIVE RISK AND RATIONAL ACTION

Managing Moral Hazard
in Insurance Contracts

Carol A. Heimer

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS

Berkeley Los Angeles London

Contents

Preface vii

- 1 Reactive Risk, Market Failure, and Insurance Institutions 1
 - Insurance and Theories of Rational Action 1
 - The Insurance Contract as Strategic Interaction 7
 - Institutionalized Strategies in Insurance Practice 11
 - Variations in Reactive Risk: Fire Insurance, Marine Insurance, and Surety Bonding 17
 - Insurers' Models of Individuals and Organizations: A Methodological Note 23
- 2 Insurers' Analyses of Moral Hazard 28
 - Moral Hazard and Reactive Risk 28
 - Moral Hazard and the Causation of Insurance Losses 31
 - Moral Hazard: Bad Character or Economic Rationality? 35
 - Techniques for Reducing Moral Hazard 37
- 3 Reactive Risk in Fire Insurance 49
 - Ratemaking in Fire Insurance: Calculating About Rare Events 52
 - Providing Incentives for Loss Prevention 57
 - Face Values, Loss-Adjusting Rules, and Indemnity 76
 - Conclusion 88
- 4 Marine Insurance Contracts and the Control of Risks at Sea 91
 - Warranties, Implied Warranties, Franchises, and Moral Hazard 98
 - Attenuation of Control and the Insurability of Reactive Risks 110

Reducing Losses at Sea: The Sue-and-Labor Clause, General Average, and Marine Salvage	120
Indemnity Contracts and the Problem of Valuation	127
Conclusion	147

5 Insurance Against Dishonesty and Nonperformance 149

Surety Ratemaking and the Expectation of Loss	155
Organizational Correlates of Surety and Fidelity Losses	162
Underwriting: Matching Policyholders with Rates	172
Loss Prevention: Compensating for Information Asymmetries	181
Conclusion	191

6 A Theory of Reactive Risk 194

Estimating the Odds and Placing the Bets: Rating and Underwriting	196
Distance and Reactivity	198
Creating a Community of Fate	201
Third-Party Control and Collective Loss Prevention	206
Insurance Fraud and Outdated Bargains	209
Calculation and Control in Imperfect Markets	215

Afterword: Noninsurance Settings	218
Appendix: Major Categories of Fidelity and Surety Bonds	239
Selected Bibliography	247
Index	265