

Spanish

An Essential Grammar

Peter T. Bradley and Ian Mackenzie

Contents

Preface	xiii
Acknowledgement	xv
Symbols	xvi
Chapter 1 The alphabet, pronunciation, stress, spelling and punctuation	1
1.1 The alphabet	1
1.2 Pronunciation	2
1.3 Stress and written accents	6
1.4 Spelling – capital letters	9
1.5 Punctuation	11
Chapter 2 Nouns	13
2.1 Plural forms of nouns	13
2.2 Gender	18
2.3 Collective nouns and agreement	26
Chapter 3 Definite and indefinite articles	27
3.1 Forms of the articles	27
3.2 The definite article	29
3.3 The indefinite article	36
3.4 The neuter article lo	40
Chapter 4 Demonstrative adjectives and pronouns	43
4.1 Demonstrative adjectives	43
4.2 Masculine and feminine demonstrative pronouns	45
4.3 Neuter demonstrative pronouns	46

Chapter 5	Possessive adjectives	47
5.1	Possessive adjectives before the noun	47
5.2	Possessive adjectives after the noun	48
5.3	Definite and neuter articles with possessives	49
5.4	Avoidance of ambiguity with su/sus and suyo/a/os/as	49
5.5	Parts of the body and personal effects	50
5.6	Possessive adjectives with adverbs and prepositions	50
Chapter 6	Adjectives	52
6.1	Gender	52
6.2	Singular and plural of adjectives	55
6.3	Shortening of adjectives	56
6.4	Position of adjectives	57
6.5	Translating English 'un-' + adjective	61
6.6	Verb + adjective sequences	62
Chapter 7	Adverbs	63
7.1	Adverbs ending in -mente	63
7.2	Adverbs not ending in -mente	65
7.3	Adverbial phrases	68
7.4	Adjectives used as adverbs	69
Chapter 8	Personal pronouns	70
8.1	Subject pronouns	72
8.2	Direct and indirect object pronouns	74
8.3	Prepositional object pronouns	77
8.4	Reflexive pronouns	78
8.5	The position and order of personal pronouns	80
8.6	Use of le(s) in place of lo(s) and la(s)	82
Chapter 9	Indefinite adjectives, pronouns and adverbs	84
9.1	Algo	84
9.2	Alguien	85
9.3	Alguno	85
9.4	Uno	86
9.5	Mucho, poco	87
9.6	Bastante, suficiente	88
9.7	Varios	88
9.8	Demasiado	89

9.9	Todo	89
9.10	Cualquiera	92
9.11	Ambos/as	93
9.12	Cada	93
9.13	Solo	94
9.14	Demás	94
9.15	Cierto	95
9.16	Tal, semejante	95
9.17	Otro	96
Chapter 10 Verb forms		97
10.1	Present indicative and present subjunctive	98
10.2	Imperative	112
10.3	Imperfect tense	114
10.4	Preterite tense	115
10.5	Imperfect subjunctive	120
10.6	Future and conditional tenses	121
10.7	Future subjunctive	121
10.8	Non-finite forms	122
10.9	Compound tenses	124
10.10	Progressive or continuous tenses	126
Chapter 11 Uses of tenses		128
11.1	Simple tenses	128
11.2	Compound tenses	135
11.3	Progressive or continuous tenses	139
11.4	Expressions of time with hacer, desde and llevar	141
11.5	Verbs like gustar	143
Chapter 12 The subjunctive mood		145
12.1	Subjunctive in subordinate que clauses	145
12.2	Subjunctive required by certain subordinating conjunctions	153
12.3	Subjunctive in main clauses	157
12.4	The sequence of tenses – which subjunctive tense to use	158
12.5	Additional uses of the -ra form of the imperfect subjunctive	159
12.6	The future subjunctive	160

Chapter 13	Conditional clauses	161
13.1	Use of the subjunctive after si	161
13.2	Indicative tenses after si	162
13.3	Conditional sentences without si	164
Chapter 14	Reflexive verbs	165
14.1	Formation of reflexive verbs	165
14.2	Reflexive verbs with a reflexive meaning	166
14.3	Reflexive verbs with a reciprocal meaning	166
14.4	Reflexive verbs with an indirect object pronoun	167
14.5	Se as an indefinite subject	168
14.6	Reflexive verbs 'to get/have something done'	168
14.7	Verbs reflexive in form but not in meaning	168
14.8	Transitive verbs used reflexively with intransitive meaning	169
14.9	Verbs of becoming	171
14.10	Emphatic reflexive verbs	172
Chapter 15	Passive constructions	176
15.1	Ser and estar with the past participle	176
15.2	Alternatives to passive constructions	177
Chapter 16	Modal auxiliary verbs	182
16.1	Deber	182
16.2	Tener que	183
16.3	Haber	184
16.4	Querer	184
16.5	Poder	185
16.6	Saber	187
16.7	Soler	187
Chapter 17	Infinitive constructions	188
17.1	Finite verb + infinitive	188
17.2	Prepositions + infinitive	189
17.3	Infinitives in impersonal constructions	194
17.4	An infinitive as the subject of a verb	194
17.5	An infinitive with an explicit subject	195
17.6	The infinitive as a verbal noun	196

Chapter 18	Uses of the gerund	197
18.1	Basic use of the gerund	197
18.2	Gerund and main verb with different subjects	198
18.3	Gerund in place of a relative clause	198
18.4	Gerund with certain verbs	199
18.5	Cases where the gerund is not used	200
Chapter 19	Commands	202
19.1	Forms of the imperative	202
19.2	Commands which use the present subjunctive	205
19.3	Alternative ways of expressing commands	207
Chapter 20	Ser and estar	209
20.1	Situations which demand ser	209
20.2	Situations which demand estar	211
20.3	Ser and estar with adjectives	211
20.4	Ser and estar with past participles	214
20.5	Special uses of estar	214
Chapter 21	Prepositions	215
21.1	A	215
21.2	Antes de, ante, delante de	220
21.3	Bajo, debajo de	220
21.4	Con	221
21.5	Contra, en contra de	222
21.6	De	222
21.7	Dentro de, fuera de	224
21.8	Desde	225
21.9	Detrás de, tras	225
21.10	En, encima de, sobre	226
21.11	Enfrente de, frente a	228
21.12	Entre	229
21.13	Hacia, hasta	229
21.14	Según	230
21.15	Sin	231
21.16	Combinations of prepositions	231
21.17	Cuando and donde used as prepositions	232

Chapter 22	Por and para	233
22.1	Uses of por	234
22.2	Uses of para	236
22.3	Por and para with estar – comparisons	237
Chapter 23	Numerals and numerical expressions	238
23.1	Cardinal numbers	238
23.2	Ordinal numbers	244
23.3	Fractions	245
23.4	Collective and multiple numerals	246
Chapter 24	Negation	248
24.1	No	248
24.2	Other negative words	249
24.3	Expressions using no	253
24.4	Spanish negatives with English affirmative meaning	254
24.5	Affirmative phrases with negative meaning	254
Chapter 25	Relative clauses	255
25.1	Differences between Spanish and English relative clauses	255
25.2	Restrictive and non-restrictive relative clauses	256
25.3	Spanish relative pronouns, adverbs and adjectives	257
25.4	A basic system	257
25.5	Alternatives to the basic system	263
25.6	Focusing on words or phrases	264
25.7	Use of el que and quien to mean ‘anybody who’, ‘those who’	266
25.8	Cuanto ‘as much/many as’	267
25.9	Relative clauses with infinitives	267
Chapter 26	Comparative and superlative constructions	268
26.1	Comparisons involving adjectives or adverbs	268
26.2	Comparisons involving nouns	270
26.3	Comparisons involving verbs	271
26.4	Uses of de after más and menos	271
26.5	Cuanto más and cuanto menos	272
26.6	Superlative constructions	273
26.7	Other comparative expressions	276
26.8	Other expressions of equality – ‘the same (thing) as’	276

Chapter 27	Questions and exclamations	277
27.1	Subject-verb inversion	277
27.2	Spanish interrogative words	278
27.3	Question tags	282
27.4	Exclamations	282
Chapter 28	Word order	284
28.1	New versus old information	284
28.2	Item under discussion at beginning of sentence	286
28.3	Emphatic stress	286
28.4	Specific constructions	287
28.5	Position of adverbs	288
28.6	Subject-verb inversion in questions	289
Chapter 29	Word formation	291
29.1	Suffixes	291
29.2	Prefixes	300
29.3	Combinations of words	303
Chapter 30	Differences between Latin American and Peninsular Spanish	305
30.1	Pronunciation	305
30.2	Forms of address	306
30.3	Le and lo	309
30.4	Uses of tenses	309
30.5	El que, quien and que	310
30.6	Vocabulary	311
Glossary		317
Index		320