

Research Report No. 19

Peter Følge Jensen

Soviet Research on Africa with special reference to international relations

CONTENTS

1. Chapter 1.
1. Preface.
1. Purpose.
2. Frame of conception.
3. Application of Young.
4. Choice of material.

8. Chapter 2.
8. Some maintrends in Soviet Africa-research as a whole.
8. Main subjects.
12. About the use of sources.

13. Chapter 3.
13. Analysis of the texts.
13. General viewpoints of the texts.
17. First passage:
Texts on 'relations among the African countries themselves.'
17. a) G.V.Fokeyev: 'African Foreign Policy'.
26. b) Ya.Ya.Etinger: 'political Problems of African unity.'
30. c) Central common features and differences.
32. Second passage:
The relations between the imperialistic countries and Africa.
33. a) V.Kollontay: 'The EEC and the developing countries.'
37. b) NAA 1971 no.6: 'For the Illustration of the Question on 'Eurafrikan Integration''.
39. c) Central common features and differences.
39. Third passage:
The relationship between the socialistic countries and Africa.
40. a) A.A.Gromyko: 'The Soviet-African Relations at their Present Stage.'
43. b) A number of articles from NAA.
47. c) A.P.Krotov: 'The Mutual Relations between Africa and the Socialistic Countries'.
47. d) T.L.Deych: China's Politics in Africa.
50. e) Central common features and differences.

52. Chapter 4.
52. Conclusion.
52. Discussion on Young's influence on the analysis.
53. Summing up and evaluation of the major results of Soviet research on Africa.
58. Possible Applications of the results.
58. Further investigations.

60. Supplement 1. Transliteration.
61. Supplement 2. List of bibliographies.
62. Recommended reading list.
65. Notes.