

Principles of Ecological Landscape Design

Travis Beck

Washington | Covelo | London

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Foreword	xiii
Introduction	1
1 Right Plant, Right Place: Biogeography and Plant Selection	7
2 Beyond Massing: Working with Plant Populations and Communities	33
3 The Struggle for Coexistence: On Competition and Assembling Tight Communities	65
4 Complex Creations: Designing and Managing Ecosystems	89
5 Maintaining the World as We Know It: Biodiversity for High-Functioning Landscapes	107
6 The Stuff of Life: Promoting Living Soils and Healthy Waters	125
7 The Birds and the Bees: Integrating Other Organisms	153
8 When Lightning Strikes: Counting on Disturbance, Planning for Succession	179
9 An Ever-Shifting Mosaic: Landscape Ecology Applied	209
10 No Time Like the Present: Creating Landscapes for an Era of Global Change	235
Bibliography	261
Index	273