

Christian Faith and the Bible of Judaism

The Judaic Encounter with Scripture

JACOB NEUSNER

WILLIAM B. EERDMANS PUBLISHING COMPANY
Grand Rapids, Michigan

Contents

Preface	ix
PART ONE: GENESIS
Introduction to Genesis as Read in Genesis Rabbah	2
1 Creation and Creationism: There Are Things We Cannot Know from Scripture	14
2 Chaos and Order, Nature and History	20
3 Nature Obeys, Humanity Rebels	24
4 "Let Us Make Man"	32
5 "And Behold, It Was Very Good"	41
6 "Then the Lord God Formed Man"	51
7 "She Shall Be Called Woman"	62
8 "Where Are You?"	70
9 "God Was Sorry . . . but Noah Found Grace"	84
10 "Abram Believed the Lord"	93
PART TWO: LEVITICUS
Introduction to Leviticus as Read in Leviticus Rabbah	112
11 God Loves the Humble: Israel's Great Leaders Are Humble	120
12 Who Is the True Prophet?	124
13 How God Shows Love	128
14 God Loves the Poor	132
15 The Soul Bears Responsibility for Sin	139
16 The Human Soul Is Like God's Soul	142
17 God Punishes for Just Cause	145
18 Prayer Requires Care	151
19 The Righteous Person Must Bear Witness	154
20 Israel's Faith and Israel's Fate	156
PART THREE: NUMBERS
Introduction to Numbers as Read in Sifre to Numbers	170
21 The Power of Sin	177

22	The Power of Reason	180
23	God Rewards Righteousness	183
24	When Verses Conflict	185
25	Remembering God through Carrying Out Religious Duties	191
	Index	197