

Rich and Poor Countries

Consequences of International Economic Disorder

4th edition

Hans W. Singer

Institute of Development Studies University of Sussex

Javed A. Ansari

The City University

London

UNWIN HYMAN

Boston Sydney Wellington

Contents

List of Abbreviations	page	ix
A Note on Terminology		xi
Preface		xiii
Part I: Perspectives		1
1	Introduction: The Current Economic Crisis and the Developing World	3
	The new international economic order	6
	Inequities and inequalities between countries	11
	Inequities and inequalities within countries	15
	Summary and conclusions	17
	Note	18
2	The International Economy	19
	A world view of the development process	19
	Structural change in the world economy	21
	The core of the problem: technology	26
	Notes	32
3	The Poor Countries	34
	The impact of the recession	35
	The economic structure of the poor countries: unity in diversity	39
	The development process	46
	Development strategy: national and international	50
	Notes	54
Part II: Trade		57
4	Trade and Development	59
	Trade and growth	59
	Trade, employment and income distribution	63

Contents

Developing countries: trade patterns	page 67
Notes	70
5 Trade Policies of the Rich Countries	71
The international trade system	71
Trade in primary commodities	74
Trade in manufactures	82
Future trade prospects	94
Notes	101
6 Trade Strategy	104
Has import substitution failed?	104
Is export orientation possible?	109
Measures to stimulate North-South trade	117
South-South trade	135
The impact of UNCTAD	144
A trade policy for the Third World	147
Appendix: The rate of effective protection in the LDCs	151
Notes	152
Part III: International Finance	157
7 Aid and Development	159
Aid, trade and the widening gap	159
Aid defined and measured	169
Aid allocation criteria	174
Scope of aid	177
Wider aid concepts	180
Bilateral versus multilateral aid	183
Hard versus soft aid	186
Project aid and programme aid	188
Tied aid	192
Notes	195
8 Aid: Trends	197
The volume of aid and its distribution	197
The burden of aid: the recipients' dilemma	207
Food aid	210
Future of aid: aid reform	211
Notes	216
9 The Debt Crisis	218
A debt profile of the Third World	218
The genesis of the debt crisis	220
Patterns of adjustment and the impact of the debt crisis	226

Contents

Debt management reform proposals	page 231
Notes	237
10 The Multinational Corporation in the Developing Countries	240
Colonial private investment	240
Modern foreign private investment	243
Multinational corporations and the LDCs	246
The multinational corporation and technology transfer	252
Government policy and multinationals in South Korea: a case study	261
Appendix: Third World multinationals	264
Notes	266
11 The International Financial System and the Developing Countries	269
The developing countries in the Bretton Woods era	269
The poor countries in a regime of floating exchange rates	271
Development requirements and the new system	276
Notes	285
Part IV: An Overview	289
12 Forty Years of Changing Thought on Development Problems	291
Notes	301
Statistical Appendix	303
Index	317