

State Capital and Private Enterprise

The case of the UK National Enterprise Board

DANIEL C KRAMER

ROUTLEDGE
London and New York

CONTENTS

Foreword
1 Introduction: The rise and fall of the NEB	1
Selective assistance in the UK	1
The birth of the NEB	4
The duties and structure of the NEB	9
The burgeoning of the NEB	15
The NEB bubble bursts	18
2 The NEB's profit-and-loss record	29
The data	29
The data further analysed	32
The NEB versus other UK venture capitalists	39
3 Obstacles faced by NEB not confronting private venture capitalists	44
The NEB sells at bargain prices	44
The NEB and the Press	47
The NEB and the Tory right	54
Parliament sees the Board's slip showing	58
4 The Board wraps itself in a cloud of mystery: additional Parliamentary tribulations of a public venture capitalist	64
5 The NEB and the Department of Industry	75
6 Firms aided by the NEB as venture capitalist: case studies	81
7 Highlights of the case studies	117
8 Inmos	130
9 The Insac debacle	145
10 The Nexos disaster	152
Nexos' birth and wares	152
Nexos' financial woes	154
The termination of Nexos	158
Why Nexos failed: the 1985 DOI analysis	160
Why Nexos failed: other contributing factors	162
11 Alfred Herbert	171
12 Fairey and Ferranti	177
13 Rolls Royce	185
14 British Leyland	194
15 The NEB and the Ministry of Defence	206
16 Is an NEB now needed in the United Kingdom?	211

Contents

17 Does the US need an NEB?	218
18 Government subsidies to specific firms: an evaluation of the conservative critique	224
19 Government subsidies to specific firms: an evaluation of the radical critique	232
20 The NEB: an example of co-operation	237
Bibliography	244
Index	249