

Gender and Nation in the Spanish Modernist Novel

Roberta Johnson

Vanderbilt University Press
NASHVILLE

Contents

Preface      vii

Introduction: The Feminist Novel in Spain
at the Crossroads of Modernism      i

1	Women and the Soul of Spain	31
2	Don Quixote as National Icon and Modernist Ideal	69
3	The Domestication of a Modernist Don Juan	111
4	Baroja's, Unamuno's, and Azorín's Failed Feminists	145
5	Biology as Destiny: New National Discourses on Gender Inform the Novel of the 1920s and Beyond	185
6	Vanguard Feminists Dream the Nation	224
	Conclusion: A Legacy and a Prophecy	275
	Notes	281
	References	313
	Index	337