

CONFLICTS IN AFRICA

AN ANALYSIS OF CRISES AND CRISIS PREVENTION MEASURES

Report of the Commission on
African Regions in Crisis
King Baudouin Foundation
Médecins Sans Frontières

With the support of the Belgian National Lottery

Published by GRIP (Brussels)

Table of Contents

Foreword		3
Introduction	Eric SUY	9
Conflicts in Africa: the Issues of Control and Prevention	Luc REYCHLER	15
- The illusion of peace		16
- The costs of violence		22
- Preventing or reducing violence		26
- Warning bells and flashing lights		28
- Competence in conflict prevention		30
- Field diplomacy		32
- Towards a sustainable peace		35
The Crises and their Causes - The Prevention of Violent Conflicts	Luc REYCHLER	39
- A violent environment		40
- Different types of crises		43
- The dynamics of a conflict		56
- Conflict prevention		60
Preventive Measures - Case Studies: Namibia, Angola, Rwanda, Kenya	Filip REYNTJENS and Anne PAUWELS	67
- Introduction and definition		68
- Conflict prevention and preventive measures		69
- Preventive measures in Africa: case studies		73
- Namibia		73
- Angola		76
- Rwanda		80
- Kenya		86
- Conclusions and recommendations		89
The Great Lakes Region of Africa or the Humanitarian World in a State of Confusion	Thierry COPPENS	94

Arms Transfers to African Countries: the Controls	Bernard ADAM	99
- Introduction		101
The reality of arms transfers		102
- The statistics		102
- The reasons for acquiring light weapons		105
- The consequences of accumulating arms		106
- Arms sources in the '90s		110
- What makes the arms traffic possible		116
How to improve controls and limit arms transfers		118
- Africa		118
- Within the framework of the United Nations		121
- The role of the European Union		123
- The eight criteria of the European Union regarding arms exports		124
- Belgium		126
Conclusions		127
Anti-personnel Mines	Anne CAPELLE	128
An Analysis of UN Operations: Objectives, Means Implementation and Results	G�rard DIVE
	(under the supervision of Eric DAVID)	135
Why a peace-keeping operation was envisaged		141
- Somalia		141
- Rwanda		142
- Liberia		143
- Burundi		144
How an operation is decided		146
- The chain of referral		146
- How the Security Council takes decisions		148
Those entrusted with carrying out the operation		156
- UN peace-keeping operations in Somalia and Rwanda		156
- A peace-keeping operation conducted by a regional inter-governmental organisation: Liberia		161
The objectives of the operations: the original mandates and subsequent modifications		164
- UNOSOM		164
- UNOMUR		167
- UNAMIR		167
- Conclusions		170
The resources available to the operations and how they were employed		170
- UNOSOM		170

- UNOMUR	175
- UNAMIR	175
- Conclusions	178
Whether or not the operation achieved its objectives	178
- UNOSOM	178
- UNOMUR	182
- UNAMIR	184
- Conclusions	188
Possible alternatives	189
- The crisis itself and the decision to create a peace-keeping operation	189
- The peace-keeping force	190
- The objectives of an operation and the force's mandate	192
- The resources available to a UN force	193
Chronic Crises and their Causes:
the Case of Zaire	Gauthier DE VILLERS 195
- A long-term structural crisis	196
- From development co-operation to political adjustment	198
- Chronic crisis and the implosion of the socio-political system	203
- Aid and international intervention called into question	208
- What should be done? The main themes for reflection	214
Zaire: a Humanitarian Problem	Vincent JANSSENS 224
Towards 'Normality': an Analysis of the Concept and the Means of Action	Ruddy DOOM 227
The theoretical framework	230
- Normality as a norm	231
- Sustainable development as a planned objective	238
The working framework	242
- Sticking to reality	242
- The main actors	246
- Reconstruction and development co-operation	252
The fields of action	253
- Building towards reconciliation	254
- Reconstructing public administration	257
- Economic reconstruction	259
Conclusion	263
NGO Involvement in the Judiciary Sphere: the Rwandan Experience	Daniel DE BEER 266
Post-Conflict Situations in Sub-Saharan Africa	Pierre HUMBLET 272