

Through a Speculum That Shines

VISION AND IMAGINATION
IN MEDIEVAL JEWISH MYSTICISM

• ELLIOT R. WOLFSON •

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY PRESS

PRINCETON, NEW JERSEY

• C O N T E N T S •

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	ix
INTRODUCTION	3
CHAPTER ONE "Israel: The One Who Sees God"—Visualization of God in Biblical, Apocalyptic, and Rabbinic Sources	13
CHAPTER TWO Vision of God in Mystical Sources: A Typological Analysis	52
CHAPTER THREE Visionary Ascent and Enthronement in the Hekhalot Literature	74
CHAPTER FOUR Theories of the Glory and Visionary Experience in Pre-Kabbalistic Sources	125
CHAPTER FIVE Ḥaside Ashkenaz: Veridical and Docetic Interpretations of the Chariot Vision	188
CHAPTER SIX Visionary Gnosis and the Role of the Imagination in Theosophic Kabbalah	270
CHAPTER SEVEN The Hermeneutics of Visionary Experience: Revelation and Interpretation in the Zohar	326
CONCLUSION	393
APPENDIX Manuscripts Cited	399
SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY OF PRIMARY SOURCES CITED	401
SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY OF SECONDARY SOURCES CITED	409
INDEX	439